Owners of Major League Teams Meet in Chicago in Important Session

Reorganization of the National Commission Deciding Factor in Controversy

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Peace in organized baseball was believed in sight today when Ban Johnson, president of the American league, and his "loyal five" club owners went into session at the same hotel where the National league magnates and the three minority American league owners were meeting.

Clark Griffith, one of the "loyal five," accepted an invitation to attend the rival meeting and discuss plans for the reorganization of the national commission.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Owners of the major league baseball clubs were in session here today, to decide for peace in the major league baseball, with reorganization of the national commission as the deciding factor.

Magnates of the eight national league clubs and the Chicago, Boston and New York American league clubs extended until 10 o'clock today, their ultimatum to the other five American league clubs on adoption of the Lasker plan for a new commission on the duration of war.

President Johnson of the American league clubs met at 9 o'clock. The St. Louis and Detroit representatives of the "loyal five" supporting Johnson did not arrive in time for a preliminary meeting yesterday, so the attitude of the majority of the American league clubs was in doubt when the meeting began.

When the ultimatum was issued here October 13, Johnson declared he would approve no plan until after the Cook county grand jury had reported and a counter proposition was issued by the "loyal five," but the eleven National and American league clubs at an informal session voted to stick by their former position with the threat of a new twelve club league revealed.

Opposition to the Lasker plan, which would give three nationally prominent men jurisdiction over the national pastime, by President Johnson, was met by the "loyal five," Cleveland, Detroit, Philadelphia, St. Louis and St. Paul, who, in their counter-proposition, was based on their belief that professional baseball should not be taken out of the control of club owners, managers and players.

The Cook county grand jury's report stated the belief that the men now controlling baseball could keep above suspicion and the Johnson group apparently share this belief, although they have said they are not opposed to some form of reorganization.

In the long conference held yesterday by both factions, it was known that the National league and the three American league owners discussed plans to attempt to avert a war, but remained steadfast in their determination to form the twelve team league should the other teams refuse to come in.

No little interest was manifested in the meeting of minor league club owners in Chicago yesterday. Many passed through Chicago yesterday and major league representatives conferred with them with a view to getting information as to whether or not support of the Lasker plan could be expected from the minors. It was conceded that their support or non-support would be a great aid for either faction should the battle be decided in Chicago.

Deep-seated from Kansas City said reorganization had been made there for Ban Johnson, Connie Mack, Benji Shippe and James C. Dunn, who were expected to go to Kansas City after the American league conference today.

PROBE PALMER'S ACTION

Judge Going to Find Out If Attorney General Can "Ham-String Case"

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—At the request of the government the conspiracy case against 125 soft coal miners and operators of Indiana, Illinois and Ohio and western Pennsylvania was continued today by Federal Judge Anderson today.

Judge Anderson then immediately started upon his investigation of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer's connection with the case, at one time declaring, "I'm going to find out whether the attorney general can ham-string a case in this court."

Dan W. Stimmis, of Lafayette, Ind. who recently resigned as special assistant district attorney in the case, was the first witness called.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Prohibition, like other great reforms, is moving slowly, but in the right direction, and five years hence all traces of the saloon, save possibly a swinging door, will be effaced, John F. Kramer, federal prohibition commissioner, said in an address at the Young Men's Christian association here yesterday.

Liquor, like other evils, he said, has been in its grasp since Adam and Eve, and prohibition the "most rational principle ever adopted in the history of the world," must necessarily take its time before realizing victory.

"Despite the fact," he said, "that more than two billion dollars a year were spent for liquor before the prohibition law became effective as an economic factor, and the very industries that expected to be hurt by its enactment are now really profiting by it."

Mr. Kramer said the time soon will come when violators of the prohibition law will be so few "they will have shame for themselves, and then I will be out of a job."

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Stealing silently into Gloucester's harbor yesterday morning while Gloucester slept, the Esperanto, Gloucester's worst enemy, came through winner of the international fishermen's race off Halifax, slipped into her berth unobserved.

For hours Gloucester waited, since Saturday noon until long after sunset, hands playing, wharves and docks jammed with people—waited to give royal welcome to the gallant schooner and her skipper, Captain Marty Welch, and his crew. Then Gloucester heard she would not arrive until late in the morning and Gloucester went to sleep. When it came time to go to work, the champion fisherman schooner was crowded, flocked to the waterfront and proudly trotted the deck and congratulated Capt. Marty Welch and his crew.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Federal court decrees refusing to grant an injunction to the Niles Tool Works company of Hamilton, Ohio, against the Iron Moulders' union, Local No. 68, were upheld today by the supreme court.

The case was unusual in that the appellant, the Niles-Bennett-Ponder company, a New Jersey corporation, made its Ohio subsidiary a co-defendant with the union in its suit, on the ground that certain rights of the parent concern were being injured.

The Niles Tool Works, while working on government orders in 1917, was seriously handicapped by a strike which it was alleged was designed to defeat the open shop policy of the company. The complaint asserted that the strike was in effect a conspiracy in restraint of interstate commerce and was a violation of the national defense act.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—For more than two hours yesterday the local fire department battled with a general alarm blaze which started in the rear of the Kaplan men's and boys' furnishings store at 114 Essex street and quickly spread east and west to adjoining business establishments until it had encompassed a whole business block, and besides wrecking damage to the buildings, had inflicted loss on the stock and fixtures of 10 varied businesses. The loss to building and stocks is estimated at upwards of $15,000.

Besides the Kaplan store, the heaviest losses were suffered by the Milstone Bros. furniture establishment.

HARDING WANTS REAL VACATION

President-Elect Arrives in Texas for Two Weeks' Rest and Recreation

Puts Aside Thoughts of Continuing Responsibilities to Stay Off "Front Pages"

ON BOARD PRESIDENT-ELECT HARDING'S SPECIAL TRAIN, Nov. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Coming to Texas for a vacation after the trying requirements of his campaign, President-elect Harding declared today that he was determined to put aside thoughts of his coming responsibilities and give himself over for the next two weeks to complete rest and recreation.

He tells his friends that he expects to stay off the front page and to cease temporarily to be more than a second rate in the daily newspapers.

From the time of his arrival at Point Isabel, a small and remote village on the southern Texas coast, he is ready to plunge unreservedly into the swing of a real vacation. Hunting, fishing and golf are the particular vacation offerings of the place, but of the three he expects to omit hunting because it never has been among his favorite sports.

A morning's fishing expedition and an afternoon on the golf links are to constitute his routine during virtually every day of his visit.

Six Miles From Mexico The fact that Point Isabel lies only six miles from the Mexican border has given rise to many whisperings of possible conferences between the new president-elect and representatives of the regime in Mexico, but those closest to Mr. Harding have been inclined to throw cold water on the reports as have come to their attention. He said today that no such conferences were in prospect, and that he had heard them expressed only in newspaper speculation.

The same attitude is taken by the president-elect toward published suggestions that before his departure he may begin informal conversations with European governments regarding the formation of an association of nations. Not only does he want his vacation undisturbed, but he has said in public utterances that he desires to have no negotiations with foreign agents until he actually has come into authority.

The delicacy of his position in that regard has been pointed out more than once by those closely associated with him. Backed by the presidency by an overwhelming majority after promising many changes in the nation's foreign policy, he naturally is looked to by foreign governments to take the proper steps to put those changes into effect. Yet he remains a private citizen for four months, forbidden by diplomatic propriety to take any hand in the direction of executive affairs.

At a time when important international problems are pending not only with the powers of the old world, but with Mexico, Japan, China, and other nations, this situation takes on additional interest. It is understood that several men representing themselves as either truly or falsely, as the spokesmen of foreign states, attempted to gain interviews with Mr. Harding at Marion even before his election, but his headquarters officials say all of them were turned away.

FRENCH WOMEN VOTERS ORGANIZE A meeting of French-speaking voters of this city was held yesterday afternoon at the C.M.A.C. hall in Pawtucket street, the attendance numbering about 200. The meeting was held under the auspices of the executive committee of French-speaking men voters of the city, and was presided over by the chairman, Onezime Tremblay.

The speakers were Rev. E. J. Turcotte, O.M.I., pastor of St. Joseph's; Rev. J. A. Barrette, O.M.I., acting pastor of Notre Dame de Lourdes and Rep. Henry Achin. At the close of the speechmaking it was voted to form an organization among the women and men of the city.

The other officers elected were Miss Yvonne Montmarquet, secretary and Miss Gertrude St. Onge, treasurer.

MAYOR ORDERED TO FIRE PATROLMAN The civil service commission has notified Mayor Perry D. Thompson that Thomas B. Riley, a patrolman of the local police department, must be discharged at once. The reason given for the necessity of this action is the fact that Mr. Riley was given a leave of absence some time ago and more than a year has elapsed since the leave was granted. According to the rules of the commission, such an employee cannot be reinstated and should be discharged.

The mayor has not yet taken action on the matter. Riley was told several weeks ago that his leave had expired and that he must report for duty immediately if he were to remain in the department. He resumed his duties upon receipt of this notification and is at present performing the regular duties of a patrolman.

SHINES SHOES WITH AMERICAN FLAG QUINCY, Nov. 8.—Joseph Paulo, a member of the crew of the tank steamship W. M. Burton, tied up at Fore River for repairs, was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Bradley of the Fore River police on a charge of desecrating the flag of the United States of America.

It is alleged Paulo was shining his shoes with the flag when the officer arrested him.

Paulo will be arraigned in court here today.

MANY MILLIONS ARE INVOLVED

Counsel in Lajoie Case Questions Legality of Appointment of Fuel Administrator

Contention Affects Acts of Local Fuel Boards in All Parts of New England

The legality of action of James J. Storow, New England fuel administrator and officials, acting under him, involving many millions dollars worth of property, was questioned in the superior court today by Henry V. Charbonneau, counsel for Charles Lajoie in his suit against Mr. Storow.

The members of the Lowell fuel committee, and local coal dealers, are seeking to recover damages for alleged acts of the defendants that are claimed to have resulted in his being put out of the coal business. The alleged acts took place during the winter 1917-18.

Mr. Charbonneau's question was raised during an attempt by counsel for Mr. Storow, Albert A. Schaeffer of Boston, to introduce a certificate, signed by Harry A. Gartfield, federal fuel administrator, appointing Mr. Storow to have charge of the distribution of coal in New England.

Mr. Charbonneau claimed that Mr. Storow had not been legally appointed New England fuel administrator. If his contention should be maintained, all of the acts of Mr. Storow, and persons acting under his instructions, would probably be invalid, it is claimed. The certificate in question was admitted in testimony to the court. Mr. Charbonneau's exceptions were noted.

Mr. Charbonneau, testifying regarding his appointment as Massachusetts and New England fuel administrator.

He said that he did not remember having given any instructions to the Lowell fuel administrator regarding the diversion of coal intended for Mr. Lajoie.

He said that many letters were received by a force of 200 clerks in the office of Massachusetts fuel administration as a matter of routine. He had no personal knowledge of the contents of the letters. He had no knowledge, he said, of any orders relating to Mr. Lajoie's coal.

He could not remember specifically, he said, what happened in Lowell as he had 300 local fuel committees on his hands. He said that he was away from his office fully one-half of the time, looking up fuel, and that his subordinates had instructions to carry on the work of the office. He denied that he had any knowledge of an order sent to the Boston & Maine railroad to divert coal from the plaintiff.

A letter, dated Dec. 26, 1917, from United States Fuel Administrator Gartfield authorizing Mr. Storow to seize coal, was introduced.

Mr. Storow said that in a case such as that of Mr. Lajoie, who is alleged to have had 5000 tons of coal on hand in December, 1917, he should have ordered the coal diverted. He said such a stock, at the time, would have been unusually large.

A. D. Milliken, mill agent, questioned by Mr. Wier in behalf of the defendants, told of fuel conditions in Lowell at the time of the alleged seizure of the Lajoie coal. He said that the water works were without fuel, and it would have been necessary for them to close down if coal had not been diverted from the Lawrence Mfg. Co. He said the stores and mills were obliged to close part of each week to save fuel.

Cross-questioned by Henry V. Charbonneau, counsel for the plaintiff, the witness admitted that the coal diverted to the water works and saved by the mill, which Mr. Lajoie had on hand was hard coal. He said that the means of averting much suffering in Lowell.

The witness said the reason the fuel administrator shut off the Lajoie supply of coal was because he refused to operate with them and would not furnish data as requested.

Allege Failure to Report In rebuttal reports made by Mr. Lajoie to the fuel administration were introduced showing that the plaintiff had failed to report, as other dealers had, the amount of coal that he had on hand at the end of several months.

Other information called for was not supplied. Other reports showed that the plaintiff had a considerable quantity of coal on hand December 31, 1917, while Edward Cavley and Daniel T. Sullivan, defendants, had no fuel on hand.

Re-cross examination, Mr. Charbonneau brought out that he reported the action taken in connection with the alleged seizure and diversion of Mr. Lajoie's coal to the New England fuel administration and not to James T. Storow personally.

Mr. Milliken said it was absolutely necessary for the fuel administrators to know the cost of coal to dealers in order that they might fix a fair price to consumers, but that Mr. Lajoie refused to furnish any information as to his costs.

Lowell Lajoie, son of the plaintiff, was the next witness. He said he had been employed by his father as a clerk in 1917-18. He testified regarding the quantity of coal his father had in stock and said he had informed defendants that some of the stock had been bought from jobbers at higher prices than were charged at the mines.

He stated that he had filled in blank checks and returned them to the local fuel administrators showing the cost of this coal. He said some of the coal had cost $5.55 a ton, and the fuel administrators had ordered it sold for $3.25 and $3.25 a ton.

The witness said there was an abundance of coal from the Lajoie yard that was at worth a fair market value of $10.15 to $10.30 and paid only $3.30 for it. He said, however, that this was 40 cents more than the invoice price.

BRUTAL MURDER OF BANK RUNNER

Two Men Robbed Messenger of $95,000, Beat Him to Death and Buried Body

Said to Have Confessed—Camden, N. J., Police Claim Jurisdiction in Case

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 8.—Camden county police authorities will claim jurisdiction in the case of the murder of David S. Paul, the Camden bank runner who, according to the police, was killed by Frank J. James and Raymond W. Schuck of this city.

Both James and Schuck, it was announced by the police, confessed. They are in jail at Mount Holly, Burlington county, in which jurisdiction the body of Paul was found. Paul was killed in Camden county, and it is expected the shortly men will be brought here to stand trial.

In the alleged confessions, James and Schuck accuse each other of killing Paul. The murder was committed in daylight in a motor car in Arch street, this city, the two men are said to have told the authorities, after Paul, who was on his way to a Philadelphia bank with $95,000 in cash and checks, had been invited to ride to the ferry in James' automobile. He was struck on the head and rendered unconscious when he later regained consciousness he was dealt a death blow.

Body Hidden in Creek The body, according to the alleged confessions, was hidden in a creek in the Jersey pines in Burlington county, and nine days later the two men returned and dug a grave and buried it. Schuck's confession, as given out, stated that he and James hurried first to the creek, leaving a woman where the body was covered over. A party of farmers out hunting, saw this mound and thinking some one had buried a deer, dug it open.

$65,000 Found in Cemetery Schuck, the police say, told where the money was buried and a cache of $65,000 in cash was found hidden in Evergreen cemetery here.

The alleged confessions of the two men differ in that Schuck denied there had been any premeditation on his part. He said he was driving along the street with Paul beside him when James dragged the bank messenger into the back seat and started beating him.

James is 37 years old and is a motor car salesman. He is married and has a son. Schuck is 32 and also married. He is the son of a Camden newspaperman.

OFFICIAL CANVASS OF TENNESSEE'S VOTE

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 8.—The political alignment of the Tennessee congressional election was expected to be determined by the official canvass today of the votes cast in last Tuesday's election in the fourth and eighth districts where unofficial returns showed the race close between the republican and democratic candidates, each claiming election.

In the fourth district unofficial returns indicated a nip and tuck contest with neither Representative Cordell Hull, democrat, nor his republican opponent, G. C. Clouse, conceding defeat. In the eighth district both Gording Browning, democrat, and Lon A. Scott, republican, claimed election in advance of the official count.

In five other districts, the election of democrats was generally conceded with the republican candidates successful in three. In the last congress the Tennessee delegation included eight democrats and two republicans.

Flirting on Boston Common Must Stop—Eight Police-Women to Be Named

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Flirting on Boston common will become a dangerous practice after Feb. 1 when plans announced by Mayor Peters today for the appointment of Boston's first women police officers go into effect. The mayor said he consulted with Police Commissioner Curtis regarding means of ridding the common of some of the "vamps" of both sexes who have made it a hunting ground, and that as a result eight policemen would be selected from the civil service lists for appointment to duty there. Their pay, like that of the men, will be $1400 a year.

PRES. WILSON BEGINS WORK ON MESSAGE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—President Wilson has begun work on his annual message to congress which will be transmitted either on the opening day of the next session on December 6, or on the day following.

House officials said today that they had no information as to what recommendations the president plans to make to congress, but administration officials said that among other things he will again urge enactment of a number of reconstruction measures which he recommended at the first special session of the present congress early last year.

This week, he will receive three Latin American diplomats who have arrived in Washington within the last few weeks. They are Emilio Joubert, minister from San Domingo; Dr. Julio Hanehi, minister from Guatemala; and Dr. Cayo Berrche, minister from Costa Rica.

RELEASE OF "NICKY" ARNSTEIN ORDERED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Reversing the federal district court, the supreme court today ordered the release of James W. (Nicky) Arnstein, who has been in prison in New York since August 10, on charges of contempt following his refusal to answer questions put to him in a bankruptcy hearing. His name was connected with operations of bond thieves in New York.

HOLY CROSS COLLEGE FUND CAMPAIGN

A drive for $10,000 in Lowell as part of the $100,000 to be raised throughout the country for Holy Cross college was opened in this city this morning under the direction of a committee of local Holy Cross graduates. Members of the committee report that in other towns and cities where the drives were held, quotas were over-subscribed in most every instance. Inasmuch as $10,000 is considered the small sum, the city as large as Lowell, the committee expects the amount to be largely over-subscribed. The drive will continue until Nov. 25.

Recent meetings of the local committee in charge were to make out lists of prospects who will be interviewed and compile a list of former Holy Cross men. At the last meeting of the committee a large sum was pledged and it is expected that the amount from all the Lowell Holy Cross men will be very substantial. The members of the various committees started work this morning interviewing prospects, but soliciting for the fund may develop a house-to-house canvass.

The drive for the $10,000,000 is for the purpose of creating a building fund to enable the construction of five new buildings on the Holy Cross college grounds. Last year several hundred students desiring to attend Holy Cross were turned away because of lack of accommodations. It is believed that the college are crowded, it being necessary for students to practice many economies in dormitory facilities.

Dennis J. Murphy is chairman of the local committee and the following students have been elected: Publicity, Raymond J. Lavelle, Rev. Francis J. Keenan.

On special gifts, Dennis J. Murphy, Rev. Francis J. Keenan and George L. Conley.

On organization, Cornelius J. O'Neil, Patrick J. Reynolds, Joseph Duffy, and Rev. David Murphy of North Billerica.

On general gifts, Joseph Payne, John McPadden, Leon King, James Gardner, William J. Lyons, Frank J. Lyons, Joseph Ginty, James J. Clifton, Dr. Timothy Halloran, Dr. Edward Welch, William J. Riordan, Martin Connors, Edward S. Murphy, and Charles D. Foley.

Vera Cruz Strike to Spread

VERA CRUZ, Nov. 8.—Striking stevedores and dock workers in this city have refused to accept the agreement reached at Mexico City on Friday by representatives of the chambers of commerce and industry and the ship owners' association and Provisional President de la Llerena. They have issued a call for a general strike to begin today and it is said the move will be supported by a sympathetic strike by railroad men. The agreement reached at Mexico City called for an armistice of sixty days, during which time new contracts would be presented to the working men.

NO AUTHORITY TO SEIZE LIQUOR

Supreme Court Rules Person May Store Liquor in Place Other Than His Home

Decision Handed Down on Appeal Brought by New York Man

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Liquor lawfully acquired by a person for his personal use may be stored in a place other than his home under a ruling today by the supreme court.

The court's decision was on an appeal brought by William G. Street, of New York, from lower court decrees refusing an injunction prohibiting federal prohibition officers from seizing liquor which he had stored in a room leased from a safe deposit company. The court declared congress did not intend to prohibit such storage when the liquor was lawfully acquired for a lawful purpose.

Justice Clarke also held that the transportation of lawfully acquired liquor from a warehouse to the home of the owner did not constitute "transportation" within the meaning of the enforcement act.

The decision was rendered by Associate Justice Clark. The lower court, in upholding the portion of the enforcement act interpreted by prohibition enforcement officials as prohibiting storage except in the home, held that congress under the police power delegated by the prohibition amendment had authority to prohibit any transportation of liquors and that in order to reduce the necessity for transportation to a minimum, it had the power to legislate as to the places where liquor might lawfully be possessed.

MEDICAL EXAMINER TO INVESTIGATE DEATH

Mrs. Eva (Lamontagne) Golin, aged about 45 years, died at the Chelmsford street hospital yesterday morning and her death is now being investigated by Medical Examiner T. B. Smith. Mrs. Golin was found in a dying condition in her room in the Martin block, in Merrimack street Saturday noon and was rushed to the Chelmsford street hospital, where she passed away yesterday. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertaker Napoleon Bloudeau.

Mrs. Golin was living alone in a room in the Martin block. Her husband, a wood chopper, is now in the New Hampshire woods and an effort is being made to get in communication with him. When found Saturday Mrs. Golin was unconscious and died without regaining her senses. Dr. Smith has given orders to have the body remain at the undertaking rooms for a few days so that the dead woman's relatives may be located before she is buried.

TO KEEP ROADS OPEN DURING THE WINTER

Fourteen large local concerns have agreed to co-operate with the state department of public works to keep highways clear of snow. The plan is to have the highways cleared out of the snow and open during the coming winter and several others have promised to furnish men to operate plows for the removal of snow from main highways, according to W. S. Whitcomb, traffic manager of the local chamber of commerce.

At the request of John N. Cole, commissioner of public works, Mr. Whitcomb has secured the assurance of these concerns that they will loan their trucks as motive power for snow plows to be furnished by the state in keeping main highways clear for traffic. Everything that can be done on the local end of the proposition has been done and Mr. Whitcomb is now waiting for signs of activity from the state house.

CONDITIONS IN FRANCE
Nation Has Shown Same
Ardor in Work of Reconstruction as in War

PARIS, Nov. 5.—France has shown the same ardor in her work of reconstruction as she did in the war, and has successfully crossed the passage from war to peace, which is always difficult for victors, says Premier Leygues in an interview printed today by the Petit Parisien. He declares the government will seek to maintain and strengthen its alliances and will examine in utmost sincerity of spirit all questions arising between France and Germany.

Belief is expressed by M. Leygues that the League of Nations must become a great force and a strong barrier against a return of imperialism and militarism. He declares the government's program is to enforce execution of the Versailles treaty that national reconstruction and the organization of work and production may be advanced.

PREACHED SERMON
ON SOCIAL SERVICE

"Jesus never told anyone to go to church," asserted D. D. Vaughan, of Boston university, in a sermon on "Social Service," in the Centralville Methodist Episcopal church, yesterday morning. "I believe there is something fundamentally wrong with the man or woman who does not attend church," continued the speaker, "but Jesus did not make church membership or church attendance a matter of basic importance."

The people who want to eternal punishment, Mr. Vaughan said, went there, not because they did not go to church, but because they failed to live up to their civic obligations.

"We have had a God sometimes in the past," the speaker claimed, "who was not as good as Jesus. We are gradually getting back to the conception of God as the Father of mankind. It is right for a minister to make the ten commandments the subject of his sermons, but it is also essential that he shall preach social conditions that will enable men to keep the commandments."

"Boston has a fairly good street car

system in all except cars and rails. But, if cattle were crowded in cars as people are crowded in the subway, the Boston Elevated train would interfere for the protection of the cattle. Watering stock is just as much stealing as holding up men in the street."

"When we had the open saloon, I used to think of it when I said, 'Forgive us our debts; I was a part of the society that kept the accused institution in existence. So there are times when it is impossible for a man to be as good a Christian as he would like to be because of social conditions. When we socialized our temperance enthusiasm, we began to Christianize the social order."

"One man said that Christ performed miracles because He wanted to make Christians. That is a slander on Christ. He performed miracles because He could not help it. Suppose, on your way home from church today, you saw a baby lying in the street, abandoned and crying. You would take it to your home and care for it. Would you do it to get people to join the Methodist church? It would be an insult for people to say that."

"I have seen women draw their skirts aside from women whom they thought were not what they should be. Some will say that those things are instinctive, but it is not so. We are what we are because of our surroundings."

"Did the good samaritan ask a man to go to church? No, he did not. The matter of religion was never mentioned. It seems to me it is time for the church to go to work in absolute self forgetfulness, to go out in the spirit of Christ, and not tie a text of scripture to every sandwich we distribute. It is human nature to be up with a personality rather than with an institution. So, if you are going to have an institution that will function in the community you want to go out with love in your heart."

ADMITS MURDER OF HIS FORMER SWEETHEART

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 5.—Albert Ellis, 21 years old, was held today awaiting preliminary hearing, following his alleged confession yesterday that he killed his former sweetheart, Edna Ellis, 18, here Thursday night, because she refused to accept his attention after breaking off their engagement.

The murder was discovered Friday morning, when the girl's body, the throat and hands slashed, was found in a vacant lot near her home.

Ellis was arrested Saturday and after emphatically denying any knowledge of the crime, weakened under cross-examination, according to the police, and said that he wanted for the girl as she returned from work and attacked her when she refused to link to him.

FIGHTING RESUMED

Lithuanian and Polish "Volunteers" in Battle

WARSAW, Nov. 7. (By the Associated Press)—Fighting has been resumed between Lithuanian troops and the Polish "volunteer" army commanded by General Zeligowski. An official statement from General Zeligowski's headquarters declared the Lithuanians, without replying to a proposal for negotiations, attacked the Poles near Giedraide, north of Vilna, forcing them to retreat. The Poles later launched a counter attack, capturing 80 prisoners, who included one German and one Chinese.

Polish newspapers estimate that more than 50,000 Germans, some in uniform, have passed through East Prussia to Lithuania during the last few weeks. German newspapers have reported fully equipped German contingents marching into Lithuania with light artillery, sending heavy artillery by rail.

90th Day of Hunger Strike

CORK, Nov. 8.—Reports from the Cork jail today described the condition of the nine remaining Irish hunger strikers there as precarious. Although this was the 90th day of their strike the emaciated prisoners were declared to be still determined to refuse food as they have done since Aug. 11.—There were originally eleven of the Cork hunger strikers, but Michael Fitzgerald died Oct. 17, and Joseph Murphy on Oct. 25, within a few hours of the death of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork, in Brixton prison, London, on the 73rd day of his hunger strike.

Scores of Indictments Expected

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—The federal grand jury which for two weeks has been investigating whiskey rings in Chicago and other cities today considered the evidence it had obtained. Federal officials expected scores of indictments to be returned against saloon keepers and others. Federal authorities wired at Washington asking that no passports be issued to the men expected to be indicted, as information had been obtained that several were planning to leave for Cuba.

Help That Aching Back!

"Every Picture Tells a Story"

IS your back giving out? Are you tortured with a dull, nagging backache and sudden, stabbing pains? Does the least exertion leave you tired, miserable, "all played out?" Do you feel you just can't keep going? You owe it to yourself then, to find out what is wrong and lose no time in correcting it. Likely it's your kidneys. Overwork, colds, chills, insufficient rest and the hurry and worry of present-day living, tend to weaken and slow up the kidneys. Backache, with that tired, "all worn-out" feeling is the first warning. Headaches and dizziness may come, too, and perhaps some annoying kidney irregularity. Get back your health before the trouble becomes serious. Help the overworked kidneys with DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS and assist the medicine by careful living. DOAN'S have brought health to thousands. They should help you. ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR!

These Are Lowell Cases:

PUFFER STREET

Mrs. H. M. Lorrain, 35 Puffer street, says: "I had severe attacks of backache and couldn't rest at night. In the morning I was as tired as when I went to bed. I often had dizzy headaches. My kidneys acted irregularly and annoyed me. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my family with benefit, so I got a supply and used them. They soon had my back strong and well. I felt like a different woman and I am always glad to endorse Doan's."

MIDLAND STREET

Q. A. Foster, city fireman, 29 Midland street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have proven their value to me at different times. My kidneys caused me a great deal of trouble, especially when I took cold or over-exerted. Severe pains and a dull ache across my back made it hard for me to sleep or do any lifting. The kidney secretions passed irregularly. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they relieved the aches and pains in my back and regulated my kidneys. I can recommend them to anyone troubled as I was."

No package of Doan's Kidney Pills is genuine unless it bears the maple-leaf trade-mark and the signature—"Jas. Doan."

WALNUT STREET

Alex Paterson, baker, 31 Walnut street, says: "Kidney trouble kept me miserable for some time. My back ached and I could hardly sleep while at my work. It was just as hard for me to straighten up. My kidneys acted irregularly. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a supply, using them as directed. They rid me of the backaches and kidney trouble."

FERNALD STREET

Olier J. St. Pierre, 12 Fernald Street, says: "My kidneys were weak for a long time and every time I over-lifted, I had attacks of backache and sharp catches in the small of my back. My kidneys acted too frequently and annoyed me day and night. I tried different remedies, but didn't get any better. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they were what I needed, for it wasn't long before my back was well and strong and my kidneys were in a good, healthy condition."

FRANKLIN STREET

Mrs. M. L. Wells, 19 Franklin street, says: "My kidneys were weak and usually in the spring, I had attacks of backache. I also felt dull and run down and had no energy at all. My work seemed a burden to me. My kidneys acted irregularly. A few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I have always used at these times, have never failed to put my kidneys in good order and restore my strength. They also have relieved the backaches and other signs of kidney complaint."

FREEDOM OF IRELAND

Arthur Griffith Tells How
England and Ireland Can
Live in Peace and Harmony

The following statement has been issued by Arthur Griffith, acting president of the Irish republic:

Our fight for independence has a world significance. It is a fight to decide whether any form of democratic or constitutional government can exist or whether the world is to be ruled by brute force alone.

When the Irish went to the polls they clearly expressed the will of the vast majority of the Irish people. Our members of parliament were elected under the same procedure as are the English members; the mandate came from the same source—the people of the country.

Yet the answer to that vote has been the filling of Ireland with English troops, the suppression of every political, national and cultural organization possessed by the people, the arrest and imprisonment of thousands of men and women, the shooting down of hundreds of civilians, the burning and looting of houses, destruction of factories and creameries, and the sacking of towns. All this is an effort to terrorize the people because of the vote they cast at the elections!

If the answer to the vote of a nation, lawfully and peacefully cast, is to be militarism of this description, then that is the end of all government. Therefore, we in Ireland, in struggling for independence, are really the champions of the fight that has gone on through the ages, and up to a generation ago was thought by the world to be won—the fight to substitute despotic government by constitutional government based on the consent of the governed.

A settlement between Ireland and England can be come to immediately if England frankly recognizes in Ireland a case what she has recognized and advocated in the case of other countries—that the military power of no nation, or group of nations, shall be suffered to determine the fate of nations over which they have no right of rule but the right of force.

Ireland seeks no more than the acknowledgment of her independence. Provided that acknowledgment be made, she is quite ready to enter into a treaty by which the independence and security of the two countries can be mutually guaranteed.

These guarantees will include these in consideration with the integrity of the Irish nation, and will safeguard the rights of such a section as that of Northeast Ulster, which professes apprehension at the thought of an independent Ireland.

An independent Ireland can know no distinction between its citizens of different creeds or classes. It will be to its interest, as well as its duty, to safeguard all.

Look at the present situation. Every elected person to Dail Eireann, and all the republicans who voted in the various elections, are declared to have acted illegally and are, therefore, outlaws. This means that two-thirds of the entire population are outlaws.

Two hundred years ago Dean Swift, seeing the tyranny endured by Ireland in his day, said that the Irish people had only one right left—the

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

right to cry out when being scourged. Two hundred years later even that right is taken from them. They are scourged, and if they complain they are sent to prison for sedition.

I would like to say to the English people:

For hundreds of years a government, to use Lloyd George's own words, has been striving to choke the voice of the Irish nation in its own blood.

You have made a country, which is your neighbor, and might be your friend—you have made that country by your policy an enemy. That country must continue to be your enemy while you continue that policy, because that policy is directed against its life, and it must fight for its life.

Abandon that policy; freely admit that Ireland has the right to choose her own government, and Ireland ceases to be your enemy.

When you deal with Ireland as nation with nation, there will be no long "can't" without making too much noise about it, and made a clean getaway with $1400 in currency.

AMERICAN LEGION'S
SECOND ANNUAL BALL

There are so many working in behalf of the American Legion second annual ball which is to be held in Associate hall on Wednesday evening, the night before Armistice day, that it is expected to be a great success. Benjamin Moloney is chairman of the committee in charge. It is to be an informal party and there will be many novel features not to be found at any other event of its kind. Mayor Thompson and the city commissioners have been asked to be present and the officers of nearby Legion posts and the state commander and other state Legion officers will participate. The evening will open with a grand march led by Floor Director Daniel Brennan, followed by the assistant floor director, Martin McCarthy, the invited guests and officers of the Lowell post. Dancing will continue until 1 o'clock.

The reception committee consists of the following members of the legion and the Women's auxiliary: Benjamin J. Maloney, chairman; Luther W. Min. Faulkner, Arthur P. Moran, Curless Garritty, James P. McCready, Eli D. Hart, Fred Esley, Charles A. Stevens, Robert Glinvan, Stephen Kearney, George F. Toye, James Hogan, John J. Cullen, Hon. John Jacob Rogers, Jackson Palmer, M. H. Would Be Ashamed To Be at Large Under Present Chaotic Conditions of Society, He Says

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 8.—Eugene V. Debs, whom it became known in Washington Saturday, the president, has no intention of pardoning, wants his case to come last of all persons imprisoned for violation of war time laws, or better not at all, under the present administration, according to a statement from Debs given out yesterday through his attorney.

The statement follows: "I understand that each political prisoner will be considered separately, and I hope my case will come last of all. I really would rather that it would come not at all under the present administration, because I would be ashamed to be at large under the chaotic conditions of society."

MEETING FOR WOMEN

There was a large attendance at the meeting for women held in the assembly hall of the Sacred Heart school yesterday, and all present spent a most enjoyable afternoon, for the program was both interesting and instructive. The meeting was presided over by Rev. Bernard Fiedler, O.M.I., and there was appropriate singing by the church choir, Mrs. Alexander Curry presiding at the piano. The principal speaker was Mrs. Frank C. Scanlon, of Milton, whose subject was "The Duties of Citizenship." City Clerk Flynn also gave an interesting talk on "Naturalization," while Miss Helen Wilson contributed an enjoyable solo. The guests at the meeting were Rev. John H. Doherty, O.M.I., Rev. Fr. Coffey, O.M.I., and Rev. Fr. O'Sullivan, O.M.I., the latter two of Tewksbury, and Miss Alice V. L. president of the League of Catholic Women.

SHE URGES AMERICAN NAMES FOR AMERICAN ARTISTS

FLORA VOOHIES

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—"American names for American artists" is the slogan for a campaign instituted by the Americanism committee of the Texas department of the American Legion. "Hundreds of American artists equal, and in some cases are superior, to foreign," says Miss Flora Voorhies of New York. "But they're without engagements because they have plain American names. It's ridiculous that an American should have to change his name to a foreign-sounding one in order to gain success."

TAXPAYERS IN IRELAND AGITATED

DUBLIN, Nov. 8.—Taxpayers in Ireland are agitated over the question, who is to pay for the damages resulting from reprisals committed by the Black and Tans, or semi-military force, employed by the government to suppress Sinn Féin disorders. The total amount of damages resulting from Sinn Féin disorders, and reprisals by orangemen and government agents in Ireland, is estimated to be nearly 10,000,000 pounds. "Already awards amounting to 5,000,000 for damages inflicted by the Sinn Féiners have been assessed against the taxpayers. The law prescribes that the taxpayer shall pay for all willful damage to property or life maliciously inflicted. The county judges who pass upon claims arising from damages in Black and Tan reprisals have granted awards to the claimants and attempted to make them the charge against the local authorities. They have, however, indicated in their judgments that they believe the government should make good the losses caused by its own servants. The principal taxpayers in Ireland are for the most part unionists, who are the largest property holders and would be hardest hit if the taxpayers were compelled to pay these damage claims. While they are anxious to help the government put down disorder, many disapprove of the Black and Tan reprisals and are unwilling to pay for the consequences of them. The Irish Times, the principal unionist newspaper, demands that the government shall make a clear public statement "that the obligation to compensate for murder, arson and robbery committed by the servants of the government is acknowledged by the government and will be promptly met." The government paid the bill of

IS THIS PAIR OLDEST WED COUPLE?

(N.E.A. Staff Special)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—These people believe they have been married longer than anybody else in the country. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Moore of Washington recently celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary.

Are there any other couples who can show a longer record? Dr. Moore would like to receive a letter from them if they can top his 65 years of married life. His address is 2713 P street, northwest, Washington, D. C.

Dr. Moore, who is 91 years old, has been smoking for 50 years! But he's about to give it up, he says, because he doesn't think smoking does him any good. He smokes a pipe and a very modest brand of cigars.

"I believe the secret of long life is early marriage," he says.

About 3,000,000 pounds for the damage suffered by the city of Dublin in the Easter week rebellion and this is pointed to as a precedent for similar action in the matter of Black and Tan reprisals.

It is expected that the government will also be asked to pay for the damage inflicted by the Sinn Féiners to which awards amounting to 5,000,000 pounds already have been made by county judges. Besides there is a bill for the damage done by orangemen in Ulster towns.

Two Roman villages dating back to the first century, B.C., have been discovered by excavations in the Swiss Alps.

THANKFUL FOR HER HEALTH

Before Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Mrs. Penkey was Miserably Ill.

Ottawa, Ohio.—"After the birth of my baby I was troubled with serious female trouble. At times I was so weak and nervous I could not stand it to hear my baby cry. I tried doctor's medicine with no results. At last a friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I did and am completely cured. I am thankful for your wonderful medicine and you can use my testimonial as you think best."

—Mrs. JOHN PENKEY, R. 3, Box 6, Ottawa, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy we know for woman's ills. If you need such a medicine why don't you try it?

Women who are suffering from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, headache, nervousness or "the blues" should not drag along from day to day without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

TO SEARCH FOR "MISSING LINK"

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The expedition sponsored by the American Museum of Natural History which will set forth for China next February will search not only for fossils of the ape-man, regarded by biologists as the "missing link" in the chain of evolution, but will study the aboriginal tribes now said to be fast disappearing in China.

"We know as little about some of the living natives as about the fossil history of the country," says Roy Chapman Andrews who will lead the expedition. "Long before the Chinese arrived, China was inhabited by aboriginal tribes, which were pushed south and west just as the Indians were driven westward by white men who advanced across the American continent."

"Remnants of nearly 30 of these tribes, such as the Lolo, Moso, Lisos and others, are rapidly disappearing, and the expedition expects to study them before they become extinct."

Describing these aborigines with whom he has hunted, Mr. Andrews said they are totally unlike Chinese, having tall and slender bodies, long faces, patrician noses and other characteristics of Caucasian blood.

Mr. Andrews said that scientific men are now agreed in the belief that the oldest prehistoric remains of man, and of many beasts, lie somewhere within the great central Asiatic plateau, where few white men have ever penetrated.

One of the reasons why little is known of China's fossils and those of interior Asia is that material of this sort is carefully concealed by the Chinese, who term the relics "dragon's bones" and use them for medicinal purposes, said Mr. Andrews.

One result expected is the education of Americans in a knowledge of the immense continent across. Whether success or failure meets the attempt to find the missing link hundreds of thousands of specimens of Asiatic animal and plant life are to be collected and brought to America. These it is planned to place in the proposed $1,000,000 hall of Asiatic life in this city.

If you could see the spotless kitchens where Kingnut is made, you would appreciate the scientific care that makes it a pure product in the modern sense of the word. The ingredients are wholesome vegetable oils and pasteurized milk.

It is a delicious spread on rolls, muffins, and toast; it makes biscuits and cakes tender; vegetables are enriched when Kingnut is added. In fact, it improves everything with which it is eaten.

The uniform quality and smooth texture increase the palatability of this wholesome, nutritious food.

Besides, Kingnut is a saving on your food bill. Order a pound with your other groceries today.

SCHOOL-DAYS ARE JOY-DAYS

for youngsters whose bodies are made strong and sturdy by rational exercise and proper food. The boy that is stuffed with foods that have been robbed of mineral salts is a dull boy. Shredded Wheat is the perfect food for growing children because it contains all the brain-making, tissue-building material in the whole wheat grain. A breakfast of two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with hot milk gives a zest for study and play-costs only a few cents.

GEORGIA TECH AND CENTRE AT ODDS

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 8.—Georgia Tech and Centre college may not meet on the gridiron next year, Dr. J. B. Greenhaw, athletic director at Tech, declared today in announcing that he had sent a telegram to Prof. Frank S. Rainey, faculty chairman of athletics at Centre, asking whether newspaper articles circulating the playing of the Tech team in the recent game between the two institutions "represent feeling and opinions of your college."

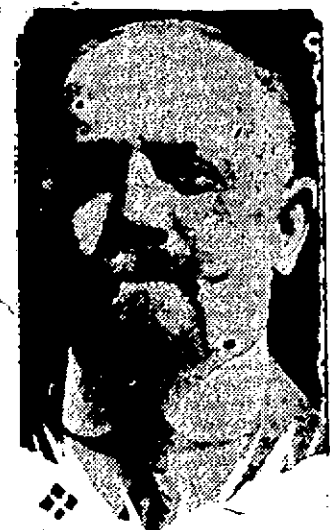

"If they do," the telegram continued, "Georgia Tech will not under any circumstances consider a game with Centre college next year."

Dr. Greenhaw said that many articles "circulating" the Georgia Tech team had appeared in newspapers. The articles, he added, "purported to come from members of Centre's team, Centre's coach, and also officials of Centre college."

The two teams played here Oct. 30, Tech winning, 24 to 0.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Adolph Roudeau and Miss Marie Coulombe were married this morning at a nuptial mass celebrated at eight o'clock at St. Joseph's church by Rev. Armand Baron, O.M.I. During the mass appropriate hymns were sung by the Notre Dame de Lourdes sodality choir of which the bride was a member. Miss Lena B. Canine presiding at the organ. The bride was attired in white georgette with veil caught up with a wreath of roses and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her brother, Mr. Wilfrid Coulombe, while the groom's witness was his brother, Mr. Emmanuel Roudeau. At the close of the ceremony the bride and groom were escorted to the home of the bride, 2 Lavalles place off Alken street, where a wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Roudeau, who were the recipients of numerous wedding gifts, left later on a honeymoon trip to Central Falls, R. I., and upon their return in a week they will make their home at 2 Lavalles place.

BARON R. DE WAHA HEADS THE NEWEST LEGATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The newest legation to be established in Washington is that of the tiny state of Luxembourg. Baron de Waha has arrived to be chargé d'affaires. Formerly he was secretary of agriculture and social welfare in the Luxembourg cabinet.

MORE MONEY FOR STREET MAINTENANCE

More funds for street and sewer maintenance work will be needed by the local street department this year if that department is to make any response to pleas for employment by men who are out of work owing to the current industrial slackness. Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy says.

Had not the local mills curtailed their activities, Mr. Murphy says he would have had enough to carry him through the year, but with daily increasing demand for employment, extra funds will be needed if his department is to assist in relieving the situation.

Just how much will be needed for street maintenance the commissioner will not know until all the October bills are in. A few weeks ago the municipal council granted him an extra $20,000 loan for sewer work and at that time some of the members of the council doubted that he would have time to spend it all before the cold weather should set in. At the present time there is but $1700 of that appropriation remaining and there is no immediate prospect of curtailment of sewer work, as far as weather conditions are concerned.

Street maintenance has always been more popular with employees than sewer work but if the demand for employment becomes too incessant, applicants will have to take what is offered them. Just what move the commissioner will take to secure more funds he has not yet decided, but it is probable that after his departmental accounts have been gone over, he will lay the matter before the council with the recommendation that more funds be voted to relieve the unemployment situation.

From 300,000,000 to 350,000,000 acres of land in the United States are under cultivation.

ELIZABETH HARRISON
PRES. HARRISON'S
DAUGHTER TO WED

NEW YORK.—Miss Elizabeth Harrison, youngest daughter of the late Benjamin Harrison, president of the United States, and Mrs. Harrison of Indianapolis and New York, is soon to become the bride of James Blaine Walker, Jr., a grand-nephew of the late James G. Blaine, secretary of state in Harrison's cabinet and also himself a candidate for president against Grover Cleveland. Miss Harrison is a lawyer and has been admitted to the bar in New York and Indiana. She says her marriage will not interfere with her law practice.

CITY WELL EQUIPPED WITH ONE-MAN CARS

With the introduction of one-man cars on the Reading-Boston route tomorrow there will be 40 one-man cars on duty in this city. The change from the two-man cars to the new style for the Reading route was scheduled for yesterday, but because of some delay on the Reading end of the line it was put over until tomorrow. The one-man cars on the Reading line will be of the jumbo type and will run direct to Reading square. Two-man cars will be retained on the Lowell-Lawrence route, along and fast line, and on the shorter Chelmsford route, but all other lines in the city will be served by the new cars.

An official of the street railway company stated this morning that with the addition of one-man cars on new lines there has been some delay due to the expense of the motormen and because they have not been used to handling the money. In a few days, however, he said, that delay from these causes would be removed and the new cars would be giving good service. The company has four inspectors at work as instructors and they are proving of great assistance to the new one-man car drivers. To assist in removing all delay in the service the officials again ask that passengers have the correct fare ready when entering or leaving the cars.

Whether or not more one-man cars would be added to the equipment of the Eastern Mass. Street Railway Co.

MORE EFFICIENT GOVERNMENT

It was Emerson who said, "You cannot indict a whole people." Yet that is very nearly what is attempted when it is insisted that the citizens of Lowell, in the long run, get just as good, or as bad, a municipal government as they want.

It is probably true that the voters get as satisfactory a government as is possible under existing conditions. Men of the highest character and of demonstrated ability do not normally come forward as candidates for public office. As another election draws near, we are having a repetition of an oft-repeated spectacle. Political hacks, who have had a taste of the delights of feeding unheeded at the public crib, are entering themselves in the race for municipal office. Some of these men have already been tried in public positions and dumped out because their services were not satisfactory. In most cases it is impossible to place the truth that the seekers for office are animated primarily, if not solely, by a desire to get a profitable place on the city's payroll. Most of these men would be laughed at if they should seek a position as that of agent of one of Lowell's mills. Yet the business of administering the city's affairs is of far more importance than the duties that pertain to the office of any mill official.

It would be putting the figure very low to say that every wage earner in Lowell works, on an average, three weeks out of every year for the city. Working for the city, in this sense, is not the ultima thing that is the dream of so many ravenous patriots anxious for a place on the payroll. It is meant that the product of three weeks of toil goes to pay for carrying on the city government.

The welfare of every man and woman of Lowell is intimately bound up with that of the city government. They pay the bills, whether the government is good or bad, and in the case of an inefficient and wasteful government they not only pay but they get cheated out of a full return for their money.

The problem of the day is to get better equipped men, better trained men, men of the highest standing, men who have demonstrated their ability for the conduct of affairs in private life, to become candidates for municipal office. The great war showed us that it is possible to draft such men into the unselfish service of the public. They came forward in numbers to tell tirelessly, and without hope of gain, in Liberty Bond sales, Red Cross drives, and various other activities. Is it impossible that men of this class can be brought to see the necessity for serving as patriotically the city in which their children are being brought up, in which their most important interests are centered?

The time is ripe for such men to step again to the front. We believe they will do so, if they can be made to realize the seriousness and importance of the task that lies ahead and if the charter commission succeeds in evolving a charter that will promote and facilitate a good government.

THE MANDATORIES

Now that we have repudiated the League of Nations, we may be told that it is none of our business what the league does, what its members do with the subject peoples put under so-called "mandates," provided nothing is done to affect American interests.

When the covenant was first given out, it was understood that the mandate was an official order from the league addressed to some great power to take charge of a subject people for the purpose of directing them along the lines of good government and preparing them for independence. It appears, however, that the nations that have accepted such mandates are already exploiting the peoples thus placed under their control, for selfish ends. In some cases, the authority of the mandatory power has been heretofore resisted and as fiercely enforced by the use of military force.

It appears, therefore, that the peoples so "protected" are to be treated simply as colonies, and in most cases exploited as colonies usually are by the governing power.

England has taken over nearly all of the German colonies; France gets several others, and England, France and Italy are in charge of Turkey with the outcome of their control quite uncertain, although there is no doubt that they will use military force if necessary to promote their own interests in the Turkish empire. Already they have arranged for railroad exploitation for their own benefit rather than that of Turkey, which will have to pay the expenses and a great deal more.

The mandates under the League of Nations are likely to lead to the oppression of the peoples so controlled instead of their being led along the path of progress toward freedom and independence. There was a time not so long ago when several peoples or small nations were yoked together to make a kingdom, the people of which were to have little or no voice in their own government. It seems that the mandates under the League of Nations are to be no better, if we are to judge of the manner in which they are being conducted at the present time.

AMERICANS IN SIBERIA

There is a vast significance in the news that an American syndicate has secured from the soviet government of Russia a lease of an immense tract of land in Kamchatka, Siberia. The land faces Alaska. That is to say, across the Bering strait, America is only 54 miles distant. Japan hitherto has claimed special rights in the Orient because of her proximity to concessions on the mainland. America will now be entitled to the same consideration. Profound effects upon the future history of the Far East may follow from this cause.

American citizens are free to lease land in Russia or any other part of the world; but the government of the United States cannot guarantee them protection or be responsible for their conduct.

The succeeding government of Russia will repudiate many contracts of the Bolsheviks. But it is not certain that this Siberian lease will be invalidated. The contractual area is a cold wilderness. Russia has never shown a desire or ability to develop it. But American enterprise and pioneering genius, backed by American capital, are capable of redeeming the country for civilization and democracy as Alaska has been redeemed.

In exploring Siberia for oil and minerals, Americans will be brought face to face with Japan upon territory which the Japanese pretend is sacred to their own exploitation. Japan must then reckon with a competitor in Siberia whose purpose is not to disturb the sovereign rights of the inhabitants. Rather, the competitor's purpose is to seek wealth by making the inhabitants themselves prosperous.

TO SAVE CHILDREN FROM DEATH

That is a humane movement started by Herbert Hoover for a fund of $25,000,000 for the relief of the starving children of Europe. It is a fact that in several countries of Europe thousands of children are threatened with death from lack of food and fuel during the coming winter. In Austria particularly the conditions are most pitiable. The peace congress—Wilson, Lloyd George and Clemenceau—decreed the death of Austria by dismembering the empire and leaving what remains of Austria without the natural resources by which a nation can exist. As a result, the people have been dying by thousands of starvation and cold without any prospect of relief. Unless aid reaches them very soon, it is expected that no fewer than 100,000 will be sent to other countries for the winter to escape death from cold and starvation.

It would indeed be a most meritorious and humane work to raise a fund to feed these and children of other countries in similar straits. The amount mentioned by Mr. Hoover sounds big, but it could easily be raised by a nation of over a hundred million people and would be raised promptly if the actual conditions were known here.

SURPLUS WAR STOCK

Director E. C. Morse, who has had charge of the sale of surplus war supplies, has resigned after having sold since April, 1919, war stocks costing more than $1,685,000,000. He claims that an average of 63 per cent of the cost has been realized. He sold the two great powder-making plants at Nitro, W. Virginia, at what was regarded as reasonable, although far short of the actual cost. The plants were constructed for the manufacture of smokeless powder and would have rendered good service had the war been prolonged. They will be used for other lines of manufacture, thus compensating in some measure for loss on the original cost.

Textiles, exclusive of wool, amounting to $117,000,000, have been sold; airplane material and equipment, $27,000,000; clothing and equipment, $43,000,000; ferrous metals, $50,000,000; non-ferrous metals, $55,000,000; and land and building, $168,000,000. Inasmuch as army stores for the sale of food and clothing are still in operation in many of the large cities of the country it would appear that the surplus of food, principally canned bacon, meat and vegetables, is still far from exhausted.

SOVIET PROPAGANDA HERE

Either the Bolsheviks of Russia are furnishing money to flood this nation with soviet propaganda or else their friends and disciples, the socialists, are doing this work and paying for the literature sent around our streets extolling the soviet regime of Russia. Emma Goldman and her pals, who have been deported to Russia, would like to come back; and it is hoped that those who are enamored of the soviet system of government will betake them to Russia as quickly as they can.

The 13,000 socialists of Massachusetts who voted for Debs constitute something of a menace to our liberties, but they will be held within the limits of the law in all their activities.

The police should find out from what source this literature was issued and distributed throughout this city. Evidently some of the local socialists are identified with this work, and if so they should be found and punished if they have violated the law. If the ordinances do not already provide a remedy for the distribution of Red literature, the oversight should be promptly remedied.

Hells of the Past

At the recent centennial tea, given by the Woman's Press club of Indiana, the following was pinned on one of the guests exhibited: "The blue and white blues in this quilt, place by place, tell of my grand mother's century ago. The quilt is not so remarkable, but the maid was—she lived with her for 30 years."

Many inquiries came to the donor to know whether any of the descendants of the woman were still in the land of the living.—Indianapolis News.

A Solemn Convert

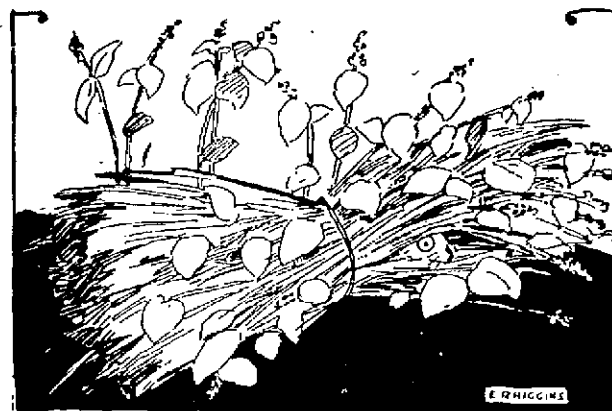

The temperance reformer was justly proud of having converted the biggest drunkard in a Scottish town, and induced him—he was the local grave digger—to get on the platform and testify. This is how he did it: "My friends," he said, "I never thought to stand upon this platform with the prospect on one side of me and soon clerk on the other side of me. I never thought to tell you that for a whole month I've not touched a drop of anything. I've been enough to the local grave digger to get on the platform and testify. ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

A PRISONER

"What's happened?" cried Chip. And it had sharp knives that were snipping off great armfuls of buckwheat stalks, then lying them up into bundles, and throwing the bundles onto the ground. Half the field was covered with these bundles lying in straight rows like ranks of fallen soldiers. But he discovered another thing of greater importance to him by far.

CHIP PUT HIS EYE TO THE HOLE

He had discovered what had happened to himself. Mind you, Chip was inside one of the bundles and tied up as tightly as an express package. He could use his paws a little, and turn his head a bit, but his tail—his poor tail was tied right in with the buckwheat stalks, and he knew he could never pull it out.

"Oh, dear, why did I play truant?" he began to whimper. "Why didn't I go to the Meadow Grove School like a good boy, and mind Mr. Scribble Scratch, the schoolmaster. I wonder if Nick will find me! Or Nancy!"

WILL GO TO ROME

Lowell Priest to Enter College of the Propaganda

Rev. William W. Noonan, O.M.I., of the Immaculate Conception church, will sail next Friday for Rome to take up a special course in advanced theology and associated studies at the College of the Propaganda. Because of his special knowledge of the subject and his exceptional scholastic success during his period of training for the priesthood, Rev. Fr. Noonan has received this call for special work in his chosen field.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Noonan of 67 Andover street and is a graduate of the Immaculate Conception school, the Lowell high school and the Catholic University at Washington, D. C. He also studied at Buffalo, N. Y. At each institution he led his classes and won high honors. He is the first Lowell member of the Oblate order to be called for this work and one of the very few in the United States.

CENTRAL M. E. CHURCH

After the evening service in the Central M. E. church last night, Dr. Spaulding exhibited a series of pictures of South America with a view to showing that under present conditions there, Christianity is needed as much if not more than in Asia, Africa or Australia. The display of the pictures was accompanied by explanations and interesting messages by Dr. Spaulding. Tuesday evening the directors of the Lowell Goodwill Industries will entertain at the supper in the church a number of those interested in the activities which they direct. Dr. E. J. Hejling of the Morgan Memorial church of Boston will be the principal speaker and has promised to tell of the goodwill industries of which he is the founder. The public is cordially invited to attend at 7 o'clock. The meeting will provide opportunity for the work recently established in the Hubbard house in French street.

OUTING FOR SOLDIERS

Preparations for the automobile outing for the convalescent soldiers at the Groton hospital next Sunday will be made at an important meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the local post of the American Legion. Distribution of tickets for the legion hall will also be carried out.

DOUBLE WEDDING

A pretty double wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Dickey, of 78 Varney street, Saturday evening when Miss Gertrude Lillian Dickey, their daughter, became the bride of Private Jesse O. Stouffer of

LIKE New World, Says Mrs. Hewes, Massachusetts Woman After Suffering Four Years in Perfect Health, Now.

"No one knows all the pain and agony I suffered during the past four years, thanks to Tanlac that's all a thing of the past, for I am now feeling just fine," declared Mrs. Joseph Hewes, of 102 E. Main street, Wilmamstown, Mass., a highly respected resident of this place for the past 20 years.

"Before Tanlac fixed me up in such good health, I had scarcely any appetite at all, and even the little I did eat soured and fermented in my stomach, causing such a terrible pressure around my heart that I could hardly breathe. My kidneys bothered me a great deal, and my back pained me so dreadfully that it was all I could do to stand it. I also had awful pains in my knees, and at times they were so severe I couldn't walk or get up from a chair without something to hold on to. I never knew what it was to get a good night's sleep, and was simply miserable all the time."

"Well, since taking Tanlac it just seems almost like I am in a new world, for I never have an ache or pain and can get about as good as I could years ago. I have a splendid appetite, am entirely free from stomach trouble, and sleep like a child every night. In fact, I feel like an altogether different person, and simply can't praise Tanlac enough for my wonderful recovery."

Tanlac is sold in Lowell by Greens drug store, Merrimack square, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative and by the leading druggist in every town.—Adv.

Camp Devens, and Miss Bernice Lillian Staples, daughter of Mrs. Clara A. Staples, became the bride of Mr. Walter E. Burner, Rev. Edward Babcock, pastor of the First Baptist church and Rev. Charles G. Zier, assistant pastor of the First Congregational church performed the ceremony. Both bridegrooms are veterans of the world war. Miss Dickey is the daughter and granddaughter of Civil war veterans and the sister of a Spanish war veteran. Miss Staples is also the granddaughter of a Civil war veteran. In keeping with the patriotic nature of the ceremony, the home was decorated tastefully with the national colors. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served and the couples left on extended wedding tours. They will be at home after Dec. 1.

FRIGHTFULNESS IN IRELAND

Mr. John Kennedy of 95 Middlesex street has received a letter from a relative in Ennistymon in the County of Wick, Ireland, giving an account of the horrifying work of the "Black and Tans" in that locality.

The writer says: "We are having a reign of terror in Ireland at the present time. The soldiers and Black and Tans are burning houses and doing all kinds of mischief. Recently in their outbreak at Ennistymon they committed horrible atrocities, burning and looting buildings and shooting down men suspected of being Sinn Féiners. They treated the men in the most cruel manner even after the victims had been fatally shot. The hands of some were twisted off, and the bodies of others were dashed with gasoline and thrown into the flames. It is the general opinion at the present time that the present reign of terror is fully as bad as anything that occurred in Cromwell's days."

THE FRIENDS OF IRISH FREEDOM

The following letter of appreciation to all who took part or otherwise helped to make a success of the demonstration in honor of the late Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, Ireland, held in this city on Oct. 31, was read at a meeting of the Friends of Irish Freedom in Hibernian hall last evening:

"We wish to thank all who in any way co-operated in making the demonstration equal to any held in our country. We wish to thank His Honor the mayor for his co-operation, also Right Rev. Monsignor O'Brien of St. Patrick's church and the pastors of each of the other churches, and they who headed the divisions from the various parishes. We wish to thank Superintendent of Police Redmond Welch and his cordons of men, also the O.M.I. Chetels and the Irish Volunteers for their escort and Sgt. Garrity for the use of his automobile. We wish to thank Rev. Dr. Keleher of St. Peter's church for his impressive recitation of the rosary and Rev. Francis L. Keenan of St. Patrick's church for his masterly eulogy."

GREET WASHDAY WITH A SMILE Use a THOR OR EDEN Electric Washer

You can smile at wash-day—if you have a THOR or an EDEN Electric Washing Machine in your home. An Electric Washer is a home necessity. Without it washing is a weary drudgery, entailing endless time, fuss and exertion.

A THOR or an EDEN will do a big washing and wringing in an hour's time cleaner than you could do it by hand and at a cost of only two cents for electric current.

Plans for the coming state convention of the Friends of Irish Freedom were also discussed last evening and final arrangements will be made at a meeting next Sunday evening. Patrick J. Mahoney, president of the local branch, presided at the meeting and among those who made remarks were Messrs. O'Sullivan, Sharkey, Balfry, Barrett and Healy.

DRY AGENTS RAID BOSTON HOTELS

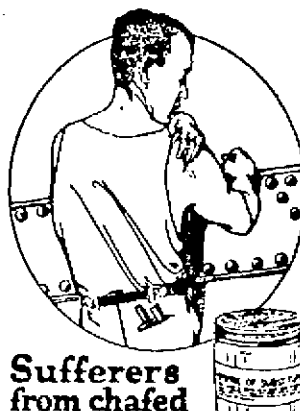

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Choosing a time when the dining-rooms were filled with students, with the celebration spirit strong in them, prohibition officers Saturday night, under the direction of their chief, pulled simultaneous raids on several Back Bay and uptown hotels and when the raids were over three hotel managers and two waiters had been caught in the net and faced charges of violating the Volstead act.

Those arrested are: L. C. Prior, manager of the Lenox and Brunswick hotels; Ernest H. Spracklin, manager of the Copley Square hotel; J. J. DeLawn, manager of the Hotel Colton; in Eliot street, John J. Kallher, headwaiter at the Lenox, and Michael Reagan at 34 Dalton street, Back Bay, a waiter.

Searches were made in other hostilities but no arrests were made. The raids were planned to take place on Saturday night because it was figured that next to New Year's eve this would be the big night of the year.

The officers who participated were strangers in the Boston district, having been summoned to the city by Chief William J. McCarthy for special duty on this occasion. They came from Connecticut, which is also in McCarthy's district.

FEAR VIOLENCE

Minister-Prohibition Agent Removed to Another Jail

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 8.—Following rumors of intended violence, police officers early yesterday spirited away Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, Methodist minister and prohibition agent, who had been held in jail here since Saturday morning in connection with the shooting death of Beverly Trumble, a tank-keeper, to the jail at Sandwich, it became known last night. Removal of the prisoner was effected quietly and did not become known until last evening.

The action is said to have followed telephone messages to the jail here that an attempt at violence was contemplated by certain friends of the slain man. Removal of Spracklin will not prevent resumption of the (quest) today. It was said, the minister having submitted his testimony Saturday night.

Trumble was killed in his hotel early Saturday while Rev. Mr. Spracklin and four other prohibition agents were raiding the place. Spracklin testified at the inquest that he shot in self-defense, asserting Trumble had pressed the muzzle of a revolver against his stomach. He also asserted his men had been assaulted by Trumble and guests in the hotel and that Trumble had threatened to kill him. Mrs. Trumble, wife of the slain man, testified her husband was not armed. Local officers say they have found no trace of a revolver Trumble is said to have had in his possession. Whether charges will be preferred against Spracklin will not be decided until the inquest is concluded. Members of Methodist churches in the border cities yesterday pledged funds for Spracklin's defense if he is brought to trial.

AT GROTON HOSPITAL

Broadway Club Delegation Gives Certificates and Distributes Dainties to Wounded War Veterans

A large delegation from the Broadway Social and Athletic club, headed by President William A. Walsh, journeyed to the Groton hospital yesterday to visit one of their members and at the same time provide entertainment for all the service men confined there.

The affair, like all others conducted by this progressive organization, was a large success. The visitors carried a large supply of "smokes," candies, fruit and other dainties, and passed them around to the wounded veterans.

An excellent musical program was then given, with the following well known artists performing: William Paul McCarthy, Charles Miller, Mr. Forrest, Frank Curran, Thomas Delmore, Daniel Brennan, Edward Donohue, Francis O'Connor, David Boyle and Dominick Molloy.

After the entertainment, Dr. Ayers thanked the party and invited them to return at an early date. There are five Lowell boys at the Groton hospital, and the Lowell party reports all are doing nicely.

You Need More Than A Laxative

To correct constipation, all organs of digestion and elimination should be helped. Try NR and see how much better you feel.

NR Today—Keeps the Doctor Away

To live and be healthy, your body mechanism must properly digest your food, extract all the nourishment from it and promptly throw off the waste that is left. This is accomplished by the processes of digestion, assimilation and elimination—the work of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. The failure of any of the vital organs to do its work properly affects the action of all the others. A forced bowel movement does not help constipation; it only results for a few hours the condition that constipation brings about.

Now if you are used to taking no-called laxative pills, oil, purges and the like, you know pretty well you've got to be taking them all the time. Moreover, if you stick to any of these, you've got to be increasing the dose all the time. That can do you a lot of harm.

Stop doing yourself with such things and let Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) do the work for you. The results show the difference. NR Tablets are not mere bowel movers, their purpose is to correct the condition that induces constipation and give you real, genuine, lasting benefit.

To improve your digestion and assimilation, give you a good hearty appetite, regulate your liver and bowels, tone up kidney action and give your poison-clogged body a good cleaning out. Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is not harsh, it is pleasant in action, no gripping or pain ever follows its use; but it is thorough and sure. By its action on the digestive organs it promotes assimilation, which means extraction of full nourishment from your food, and thereby gives you new strength, energy, better blood, better appetite. By toning, not stirring your lazy liver, NR sends bile into the intestines, improving intestinal digestion. Lastly, by encouraging more vigorous bowel and kidney action, NR drives poisonous impurities out of and cleans up your body.

Try Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and just see how much better you feel in every way. Get a 25¢ box today and take one each night for a week. You'll say you never felt better in your life. NR is sold, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.

JUSSERAND TO RETURN

French Ambassador to Bring French Views on League to Washington

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(By the Associated Press).—Jules Jusserand, the French ambassador, who went home several months ago on leave and who later was assigned to special duty in connection with the settlement of the Polish question, is to return to Washington on Nov. 24. He is expected to bring with him the latest views of his government regarding the recasting of the League of Nations covenant and to be prepared to discuss the subject with the officials of the Harding administration.

It has long been known in diplomatic circles in Washington that the principal allied powers were prepared to offer toward meeting any desire of the American government for changes in the plan of the covenant, but it has been stated in at least one important quarter that such changes must in no case violate the underlying principles of the convention. Diplomats generally go far toward meeting such changes could be made by reservations such as were proposed in the so-called Lodge plan.

In their opinion amendments would be necessary. They would require the approval of the various signatory powers. Another matter that will engage the attention of Ambassador Jusserand is the status of the commercial relations between the United States and France under existing treaties. France last spring gave notice to all powers with which she had commercial treaties of the termination of these conventions; her purpose being to replace them with a complete set of new treaties shaped to meet the new conditions in trade and commerce resulting from the war. Before the denunciation took effect, however, the French government withdrew the notice so far as it concerned the United States. France has not abandoned her plan of revising her commercial treaties and is understood to be deferring the opening of negotiations with the United States until after the change of administrations in Washington on next March 4.

Fat That Shows Soon Disappears

Prominent fat that comes and stays where it is not needed is a burden; a hindrance to activity, and a source of pleasure. Many forms of advice to reduce weight have been advanced, such as dieting, hard work, excessive exercise, etc., all of which are either unpleasant or dangerous. The latest, more modern and pleasant way to take off burdensome fat, is to take, after each meal and at bedtime, a Marmola Tablet. These little tablets are as effective and harmless as the famous Marmola Prescription from which they take their name. To get rid of fat at the rate of two, three or four pounds a week, simply take one of these little tablets after each meal and at bedtime until you have reduced your weight to where you want it. No wrinkles or flabbiness will remain to show where the fat came off. They are for sale by all druggists at $1 for a good size box. If you prefer to have them come to you direct by mail, prepare a plain sealed cover, send amount to the Marmola Co., 97 Garfield Building, Detroit, Mich., and bid goodbye to dieting, exercise and fat. Be yourself, slim, trim and attractive.

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.

WILD SCENES IN LONDONDERRY

Five Policemen Shot—Two
May Die—Sinn Feiners'
Shops Burned and Wrecked

Fierce Riot in Belfast—Two
Killed in Dublin—Rifles
Seized by Sinn Feiners

BELFAST, Nov. 8.—Wild scenes were witnessed in Londonderry Saturday night, as a sequel to a sudden attack on policemen there. Five policemen were shot, two of them so seriously that they are not expected to recover. Two shops were burned to the ground, and several others were wrecked. All the property attacked belonged to Sinn Feiners.

The attack on the policemen was directed against the officers who were guarding the customs house, and a brisk exchange of shots followed. The fray occurred at 9 o'clock in the evening, in a busy neighborhood. So terrified were the owners of shops that they fled homeward in a panic. Afterwards the police and the military raided a large section of the city, holding up and searching every one they found out doors, and invading and searching numerous houses.

Later in the evening, a hostile crowd assembled in Waterloo square, a Sinn Fein thoroughfare, and was watered by the military. Even after the curfew hour, there was almost unceasing revolver and rifle fire for two hours or more, with occasional sounds like explosions of bombs.

A number of armed men passed along William street, smashing shop windows with the butt ends of rifles, destroying the lamps on the electric standards by rifle fire and plunging the whole street into darkness. Two premises were set on fire, one being a garage, which was destroyed. A number of domestic animals were burned to death and the motors in the garage reduced to scrap.

Many persons left their houses and spent the night in distant parts of the city. Two policemen who had been wounded were found lying in Foyles street.

Fire Brigade Fired Upon.—A fire brigade called to fires in William street had a thrilling experience. Before starting, the firemen appealed to the military for aid, and a number of armed soldiers traveled on the engines. On their way rifle fire was opened upon them from both sides of the road. The soldiers returned the fire and two men were seen to fall.

To escape the fusillade, the engines took a circuitous route and called at the military barracks to get more soldiers before proceeding.

The official report of the disorders says that three constables in plain clothes received several scourgings from the fire brigade. Of two stores wrecked, one belonged to a member of the Londonderry corporation.

Fierce Riot in North Belfast.—Fierce rioting, confined to a limited area, broke out in North Belfast yesterday afternoon, the neighborhood involved being the network of streets between Clifton street and Old Lodge road, known as the Stanhope area, which has figured in every disturbance since July. Hundreds joined in the fray, the unionists with revolvers and the Sinn Feiners with rifles.

A large body of police made repeated charges to keep the factions apart until the arrival of the military with an armory when the rioters were soon dispersed.

A laborer was shot dead in Cork by a military curfew patrol Saturday night. The soldiers, allege that he three disregarded orders to halt.

Two Civilians Shot.—DUBLIN, Nov. 8.—An attack by a mob on two policemen Saturday night, ended in the shooting of two civilians, one of them seriously. The fray caused a great panic, as crowds of people were just leaving the theaters.

The policemen, who fled from the mob, fired their revolvers at their pursuers. One policeman was captured and thrown in the Liffey, but was rescued by other police.

Seine Rifles in Orange Hall.—LONDON, Nov. 8.—Several hundred rounds of ammunition and a number of rifles have been stolen, supposed by Sinn Feiners, from the Orange hall, in the Cavendish district of Glasgow, according to the Daily Herald.

The raid was discovered Sunday by a policeman, who found the words "Commanded for the Irish Republic Army" chalked on the wall of the hall.

Italy Cannot Ignore Ireland.—ROME, Nov. 8.—The declaration of the Irish Catholic bishops who, several weeks ago met at Maynooth and signed a resolution denouncing "terrorism, partiality and failure as characteristics of the present Irish government," has attracted considerable attention here.

In publication in the Corriere di Italia has elicited a letter from Deputy Mauri, one of the leaders of the Catholic party, who declares that Italy cannot remain indifferent to the separate row of martyred Ireland, and adds: "The time has come for Italy to know and realize the cruelties of the English troops serving as police, and their systematic wars of destruction."

The same issue contains an appreciation of Terence MacSwiney.

Seven Irish Volunteers Killed in Fight.—DUBLIN, Nov. 8.—Seven volunteers are reported to have been killed in a fight at the Causeway, near Tralee, Friday.

Seventy-four arrests were made in Cork during the curfew hours Saturday night.

IRISH FORESTERS.—Meeting held yesterday to organize ladies' branch of Irish National Foresters.

At A.O.H. hall yesterday afternoon, a very enthusiastic meeting was held for the purpose of organizing a ladies' branch of the Irish National Foresters. The ladies were present in addition to the organizers and brother members of Branch O'Neill Crowley. A preliminary organization was formed with over 50 prospective members.

General Organizer Handley called to order and delivered an interesting address setting forth the advantages of membership which he stated are financial, social and fraternal. The temporary officers chosen were: Miss Helen Howard, chief ranger; Miss Minnie Donahue, secretary; and a committee on by-laws consisting of Miss Helen Howard, Miss Mary Dillon, Mrs. Elizabeth Maloney, Miss Maria Markham and Miss Minnie Donahue. It was decided to elect permanent officers at the next meeting which will be held in the same hall at 2.30 p. m. next Sunday. Addresses were made by Chief Ranger Patrick Linch of the male branch, Dr. Thomas B. Delaney, Michael Mitchell, Thomas Nevins, Patrick Sheridan and Hugh McQuade.

ANOTHER ALDERMANIC ASPIRANT.—Another name was added to the list of aspirants for the position of commissioner in the local city government of 1921 today when John J. McPadden of 19 Myrtle street took out nomination papers at the office of the election commissioners. David Dickson of 142 Smith street, chairman of the republican city committee, has also taken out papers as a candidate for commissioner. Charles J. Morse, candidate for commissioner, and Frederick G. Hoile, candidate for the school board, have both filed their papers.

CHIMNEY FIRE.—A chimney fire at 335 Thorndike street at 7.45 o'clock last evening was responsible for an alarm from box 223. The damage was slight.

DEATHS

BATCHELDER.—Mrs. A. M. Batchelder, an old resident of Chelmsford, died Saturday at her home in Westford street, aged 89 years. In spite of her age deceased was remarkably active, registering and voting at the last election. She leaves a sister, Mrs. Sarah Sheldon, of North Chelmsford; a brother, Charles E. Sweet of Winchelsea; three nieces, Mrs. E. C. Bartlett of Chelmsford, Mrs. Henry Reynolds of Philadelphia and Mrs. Elmer Emerson of Medford Hillside. She was a member of the Central Congregational church.

LOCAL GREEKS INTERESTED

The topic of discussion among the members of the local Greek community at present is the coming election of a premier of Greece, which will take place Sunday, Nov. 14. There are two candidates for the position, E. Venizelos, the present incumbent, and D. Gounaris, who held the office during the reign of King Constantine, and the community, according to hearsay is about evenly divided.

LAWRENCE STREET BRIDGE

No vehicle of more than five-ton capacity will be allowed to cross the new Lawrence street bridge over the Concord river during the present week, Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy, of the street department announced today. The vibration caused by heavy trucks interferes with the settling of the cement on the bridge. Trucks and other heavy vehicles may detour around Rogers, Boylston and Lawrence streets.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

October Was Very Busy
Month, According to Chamber Service Letter

A month of much activity in all its departments is reflected in the service letter of the chamber of commerce for October, which has just been sent out to its members. The opening of the fall season in many of the departments of the chamber resulted in an acceleration of the machinery of the organization.

During the month the chamber enlarged its quarters, taking an additional office room adjoining the original quarters. This has enabled better facilities for the rapidly growing trade department.

The service letter says about the resignation of Assistant Secretary John J. O'Rourke: "It is with much regret that we announce the resignation of Mr. John J. O'Rourke, assistant secretary. Mr. O'Rourke has accepted a position as secretary of the chamber of commerce of Norwich, Conn., and entered upon his new duties Nov. 1."

During October the board of directors held three meetings with a total attendance of 34. Twenty-one committee and other meetings were held during the month with a total attendance of 151.

The October membership meeting was held at Memorial hall Oct. 21 and the speakers were Dr. A. R. Hutton of Cleveland and J. R. P. French, held from Lowell to Chicago, by letter.

Scout executive of the Boy Scouts of

New England.

The new membership committee held two meetings during the month and reported nine applications for membership.

The streets and roads committee has made a recommendation to the board of directors relative to the future construction and maintenance of streets. This recommendation will probably be made the subject of a referendum to the membership, the service letter says.

The chamber's street, railway committee made the following report of its October activities:

"A special committee is now engaged in the study of the street railway problem not only with regard to a lower rate of fare, but also to ascertain if possible, the improvement in operating conditions may be made to reduce the expense of operation. It is hoped that their study may result in a recommendation of an adjustment of the fares which will be advantageous not only to the patrons of the road but to the company as well."

The chamber's committee held four meetings during the month to consider the advisability of uniting the various relief organizations of the city that are obliged to go to the public for funds for their support and to conduct one campaign to secure amounts sufficient for the needs of all. This committee has not yet made any recommendation.

The chamber's traffic department put in a busy month and, in fact, more space in the October letter is devoted to this branch of the organization than any other one department. At the request of the traffic department the Poston & Maine railroad on October 19 established daily merchandise cars between Lowell and Chicago, by letter.

to St. Paul, Minn., and weekly cars to Toledo, O., and St. Louis, Mo.

The traffic department has been of considerable assistance in locating and obtaining prompt movement into Lowell of many carload shipments which have been delayed in transit. One case of this nature required a personal trip of the principal highway between Lowell and Boston and Lawrence, which it is hoped will enable the trucks to operate throughout the winter.

The traffic department has the facilities to render most valuable service and assistance to shippers and receivers in Lowell and all are requested to make use of these facilities.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

An impressive memorial service in honor of the late King Alexander of Greece was held in the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox church in Jefferson street yesterday morning. The church was filled to its capacity and the service, which started at 10.30 o'clock continued until the noon hour. It was expected that General Consul Leonidas Mathis of Boston would be present at the service, but he was unable to come because of a previous engagement with the Lynn Greek community, where he was the principal speaker at the memorial service held in the Greek church. The local service was presided over by Rev. Fr. Menefides and Rev. Fr. Soussides, who offered prayers for the repose of the soul of the late ruler. At the close of the service Rev. Fr. Soussides delivered a brief eulogy.

Administrator's Auction Sale of Real Estate
Thursday, November 11, 1920, at 3 O'Clock

A VERY DESIRABLE CORNER PIECE OF REAL ESTATE, A TWO-FAMILY HOUSE, NOS. 139 AND 141 WALKER ST., LOWELL, MASS.

To settle the estate of the late Peter F. Conaton, I shall sell at public auction the real estate which will be the subject and comply with the terms of sale, this modern two-family house and 4905 square feet of land, more or less, with a frontage of about 57 60-100 feet on Walker street and about 37 34-100 feet on Bertha street.

This two-family house was built for Farrell & Conaton and they were joint owners. To settle the estate of the late Peter F. Conaton and for the purpose of dividing the property, both the interests will be sold at public auction at the above mentioned date and place.

The house is two-story and has a gravel roof. Each tenement has half of the house, up and down stairs, so that they are entirely separate.

The tenements have seven rooms, pantry, bathroom, set tubs, hot and cold water, open plumbing, steam heat, radiators in every room, has electric lights, gas, separate front and back stairs, and a supply of water, entrance, cemented cellars, and the house is in good repair inside and out. The tenements rent for $30 per month each, or $720 per year for both.

The house sits high on the lot, has piazza in front, covered bulkhead leading to the cellar. There are concrete walks about the place with stone steps, and a granite-capped well along the front of the lot. It is but two houses from the Broadway electric car line. Stores, schools and many workshops are nearby, and tenements in this section are never idle.

This property should appeal to any person wishing to invest in a modern, up-to-date, two-family house. A liberal mortgage may be had if so desired.

Terms of sale: $500 deposit in cash must be paid or secured to the auctioneer as soon as the property is sold. Other terms at sale.

Per Order,
WILLIAM F. FARRELL,

ON THE LAWRENCE BOULEVARD, CORNER OF PERCY STREET, KENWOOD, BRACUT, MASS.

I shall sell at public auction to the person that will bid the highest and comply with the terms of sale, a 2 1/2 story house of eight rooms and 4000 square feet of land, more or less, with a frontage of about 40 feet on the Lawrence boulevard and about 100 feet frontage on Percy street.

The first floor of the house is composed of large hall, parlor, sitting room, dining room with china closets built in, kitchen, pantry and bath room, all hard wood floors.

The second floor is composed of four cheerful sleeping rooms. There is also a large room on the top floor. There is an extra good well of water with force pump, and sink and supply tank on the top floor. The house is fitted with electric lights. There is a high posted, well lighted, cemented cellar. Has a good sized plot of land for a garden. The place is situated within the first fire zone from Merrimack Square.

This property is in good repair and rents for $25.00 per month. Come and look it over.

Terms of sale: $500 deposit in cash must be paid or secured to the auctioneer as soon as sold. Other terms at sale. A liberal mortgage can be had if one so desires.

Peace in Organized Baseball in Sight

AGREEMENT IS REPORTED NEAR

Owners of Major League Teams Meet in Chicago in Important Session

Reorganization of the National Commission Deciding Factor in Controversy

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Peace in organized baseball was believed in sight today when Ban Johnson, president of the American league, and his "loyal five" club owners went into session at the same hotel where the National league magnates and the three minority American league owners were meeting.

Clark Griffith, one of the "loyal five," accepted an invitation to attend the rival meeting and discuss plans for the reorganization of the national commission.

After spending a half-hour with the National league and three minority magnates of the American league, Griffith came out arm in arm with Col. Jacob Ruppert of the New York Americans, one of the minority owners, and went into session with the Johnson faction.

Col. Ruppert proposed to the Johnson faction that the 16-club owners hold a joint session, excluding the presidents of both leagues, Ban Johnson and John A. Heydler.

The Johnson faction offered a counter-proposal that a committee of three be appointed by each side rather than hold one meeting with all 16 club owners present.

Clark Griffith and Walter H. Miller, attorney for Ban Johnson, went to the Heydler meeting to explain the proposal.

MILD REIGN OF TERROR

Boston Officer Accused of Standing Eight Men Against Wall at Revolver Point

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Complaints that Patrolman Alpheus Mascroft stood eight men against a wall at revolver point in the South Boston district yesterday without cause, and kept back a crowd of their friends by threats to shoot, were followed today by announcements by Supt. of Police Crowley that the officer had been suspended and from Patrolman Mascroft that he had resigned. Those who complained of Mascroft's actions said that he had caused a mild reign of terror on his beat yesterday by clashing children with his revolver in hand, and in one case grasping a girl who got in his way.

Philip London Gets Two and a Half Years

Philip London, arrested in this city, was sentenced to the house of correction for two and a half years at this morning's session of the superior criminal court at East Cambridge by Judge Cox, on a charge of breaking and entering and larceny. Nine indictments of this charge were returned against London by the Middlesex county grand jury last Friday, covering alleged larcenies in various parts of the city in the period between June 25 and Oct. 5 of this year. London pleaded guilty to only one indictment.

PROBE PALMER'S ACTION

Judge Going to Find Out If Attorney General Can "Ham-String Case"

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—At the request of the government the conspiracy case against 123 soft coal miners and owners of Indiana, Illinois and Ohio and western Pennsylvania was continued when called by Federal Judge Anderson today.

Judge Anderson then immediately started upon his investigation of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer's action with the case, at one time declaring "I'm going to find out whether the attorney general can ham-string a case in this court."

Dan W. Simms, of Lafayette, Ind., who recently resigned as special assistant district attorney in the case, was the first witness called.

INJUNCTIONS AGAINST MOULDERS REFUSED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Federal court decrees refusing to grant an injunction to the Niles Tool Works company of Hamilton, Ohio, against the iron moulders' union, Local No. 68, were upheld today by the supreme court.

The case was unusual in that the appellant, the Niles-Bennett-Ponder company, a New Jersey corporation, made its Ohio subsidiary a co-defendant with the union in its suit, on the ground that the contract rights of the parent concern were being infringed.

The Niles Tool Works, while working on government orders in 1917, was seriously handicapped by a strike which it was alleged was designed to defeat the open shop policy of the company. The complaint asserted that the strike was a conspiracy in restraint of interstate commerce and was a violation of the national defense act.

BURKE MURDER TRIAL

Cross-Examination of State's Medical Witnesses at Today's Session

SKOWHEGAN, Me., Nov. 8.—Through cross-examination of the state's medical witnesses, counsel for John A. Burke, on trial a second time for the murder of Nelson W. Bartley, today sought to show that Bartley's body was not placed in the cave formed by a "blow-down" in the woods near Jackman until after Burke was treated for a bullet wound in the leg which he claimed Bartley inflicted in front of the Burke home at Jackman.

Dr. J. M. Boothby of Jackman, a Somerset county medical examiner, who was on the stand nearly all the forenoon, described his examination of the body as it lay in the cave. The left forearm and hand were flexed at a right angle with the body, he said, the fingers not touching the body or clothing at any point.

Dr. Boothby on cross-examination gave it as his opinion that rigor mortis must have developed at a time when some object supported the hand and forearm.

He also declared that nothing supported them as the body lay in the cave. The defense contends the body was not placed in the cave until some time after the murder.

Dr. Boothby expressed the opinion, judging from the amount of blood outside the "blow-down," that Bartley must have bled from six to seven minutes before his body was hidden in the cave. He described the autopsy which he performed, also the later one at which he assisted Dr. George B. Magrath of Boston.

DRY GOODS AND FLOUR

PRICES TUMBLE

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—American and Algonquin percale prices have been cut from last season's mark of 30c. a yard to a 13c. basis by M. C. D. Borden and Sons and the Algonquin Printing company. It was announced here today. This quotation is 1 1/2c. a yard lower than the 15c. basis set by Edward Converse and company Oct. 15.

Standard prints were priced for the new season at 12 1/2c. a yard, a drop from 25c. Hereafter the goods are to be sold without protection or price guarantee.

New prices were named on overall denims today by the representative of the largest producers located at Greensboro, N. C. For 2.20 denims, white back, 25 cents is now asked, and for 2 1/2c. double and twist goods, 21 1/2c. During the fever of speculation in second hands the price of 2.20s reached 57 cents a yard, but the agents did not ask at any time in excess of 41 cents for the grades re-priced today. This quotation was for car lots in 35 pound cotton sacks.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—Flour

prices today continued their downward slide and reached what millers said were pre-war prices. At one large mill here family patent flour declined 10 cents a barrel to a new low price of $10. This quotation was for car lots in 35 pound cotton sacks.

ROBBED REFRESHMENT STAND

Two gallons of cider, six bottles of Moxie, a student's bag and some bottles of tonic were stolen from the refreshment stand at the Casino in Thorndike street one night recently. The owner of the stand, Charles B. Slickner of Middlesex street, alleges that a padlock had been forced to gain entrance, but the police claim that a pane of glass on the north side of the hall had been removed.

HARDING WANTS REAL VACATION

President-Elect Arrives in Texas for Two Weeks' Rest and Recreation

Puts Aside Thoughts of Coming Responsibilities to Stay Off "Front Pages"

ON BOARD (PRESIDENT-ELECT HARDING'S SPECIAL TRAIN, Nov. 8.—(By the Associated Press).—Coming to Texas for a vacation after the trying requirements of his campaign, President-elect Harding declared today that he was determined to put aside thoughts of his coming responsibilities and give himself over for the next two weeks to complete rest and recreation. He tells his friends that he expects to stay off the front page and to cease temporarily to be more than a second ruler in the daily newspapers.

From the time of his arrival at Point Isabel, a small and remote village on the southern Texas coast, he is ready to plunge unreservedly into the swing of a real vacation. Hunting, fishing and golf are the particular "vacation offerings" of the place, but of the three he expects to omit hunting because it has been among his favorite sports.

A morning's fishing expedition and an afternoon on the golf links to constitute his routine during virtually every day of his visit.

SIX MILES FROM MEXICO

The fact that Point Isabel lies only six miles from the Mexican border has given rise to many whisperings of possible conferences between the new president-elect and representatives of the new regime in Mexico, but those closest to Mr. Harding have been inclined to throw cold water on such reports.

The same attitude is taken by the president-elect toward published suggestions that before his inauguration he may have informal conversations with European governments regarding the formation of an association of nations.

Not only does he want his vacation undisturbed, but he has said in public utterances that he desires to have no negotiations with foreign agents until he actually has come into authority.

The delicacy of his position in that regard has been pointed out more than once by those closely associated with him. Elected to the presidency by an overwhelming majority after promising many changes in the nation's foreign policy, he is naturally looked to by foreign governments to take the first steps to put those changes into effect.

Yet he remains a private citizen for four months, forbidden by diplomatic propriety to take any hand in the direction of executive affairs.

At a time when important international problems are pending not only with the powers of the old world, but with Mexico, Japan, China, and other nations, this situation takes on additional interest. It is understood that several men representing themselves either truly or falsely, as the spokesmen of foreign states, attempted to gain interviews with Mr. Harding at Arlington even before his election, but his headquarters, officials say all of them were turned away.

REFUSES WARRANT TO ARREST HOTEL MAN

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The arrest of Ernest B. Spracklin, assistant manager of the Copley Square hotel, by prohibition enforcement officers who raided Rick Bay hotels during the football season, was refused today by the commissioner of police, explaining that there was no evidence to show that the drinking of liquor by diners in booths was with his knowledge or consent.

The federal commissioner took under advertisement charges of violation of liquor laws against other hotel officials and waiters who were taken into custody in the course of the raids.

SURPRISE STORE LIVES UP TO NAME

BRISTOL, Conn., Nov. 8.—The Surprise Store, which has clothing and haberdashery, lived up to its name today. Frank Layton, the clerk, got the surprise and not the customer. He had just opened up when two men came in who wanted a handkerchief. After the pair one of the men forced Layton to throw up his hands while the other searched him and obtained $10. and took about $10 from the cash register. They left with the handkerchief, and Layton was so surprised that he could not give a good description of the men.

SHINES SHOES WITH AMERICAN FLAG

QUINCY, Nov. 8.—Joseph Paula, a member of the crew of the tank steamship W. M. Horton, tied up at Fore River for repairs, was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Bradley of the Fore River police on a charge of decorating the flag of the United States of America.

It is alleged Paula was shining his shoes with the flag when the officer arrested him. Paula will be arraigned in court here today.

MANY MILLIONS ARE INVOLVED

Counsel in Lajoie Case Questions Legality of Appointment of Fuel Administrator

Contention Affects Acts of Local Fuel Boards in All Parts of New England

The legality of action of James J. Storow, New England fuel administrator and officials, acting under him, involving many millions dollars worth of property, was questioned in the superior court today by Henry V. Charbonneau, counsel for Charles Lajoie in his suit against Mr. Storow, the independent coal dealer, who is suing to recover damages for alleged acts of the defendants that are claimed to have resulted in his being put out of the coal business. The alleged acts took place during the winter 1917-18.

Mr. Charbonneau's question was raised during an attempt by counsel for Mr. Storow, Albert H. Schuchter of Boston, to introduce a certificate, signed by Harry A. Garfield, federal fuel administrator, appointing Mr. Storow to have charge of the distribution of coal in New England. Mr. Charbonneau claimed that Mr. Storow had not been legally appointed New England fuel administrator. If his contention should be maintained, all of the acts should be maintained, all of the acts should be maintained, all of the acts should be maintained.

HARDING SAILS FROM NEW ORLEANS, NOV. 18

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(By the Associated Press).—President-elect Harding will sail from New Orleans Nov. 18 for the canal zone on board a United Fruit company steamer, it was learned here today. Returning, he will be landed at Norfolk on Dec. 4.

Arrangements have been made whereby the ship he is to take from New Orleans will remain over one day from her scheduled sailing date to accommodate Senator Harding and his party now placed at 35 persons. The stop at Norfolk will also be by special arrangement.

The steamer selected by Senator Harding for the voyage from New Orleans to Cristobal is the Paradise, built in 1903 and having passenger accommodations particularly adapted to travel in the tropics.

The Paradise, leaving New Orleans Nov. 18, will arrive Nov. 23 at Cristobal, where the president-elect and his party will land for an inspection tour.

On the return voyage accommodations have been reserved on the liner Pastore, which will sail from Cristobal on Nov. 28 on her regular voyage to New York. The stop at Norfolk was arranged in order to permit Mr. Harding to go by the shortest route to Bedford, Va. where he is to deliver an address at a meeting of the Elks.

AIR MAIL PILOT KILLED

John P. Woodward Met Death Through Flying Into Mountainside in Fog

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—John P. Woodward, air mail pilot, whose body was found yesterday in the wreckage of his plane near Laramie, Wyo., met death through flying into a mountain side in a dense fog, said a report received today by the postoffice department.

The Lake City landing field reported that a weather bureau warning of fog was received a few minutes after Woodward left the field en route to Cheyenne. Woodward's home was in Mitchell, Iowa.

MILLIONAIRE BUILDER PLEADS NOT GUILTY

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—George S. Backer, millionaire builder, today pleaded not guilty to charges of perjury growing out of testimony before the Lockwood committee investigating the activities of New York's alleged "building trust."

Backer is accused of having testified falsely in regard to his disposition of a sum of money which is alleged to have changed hands in the course of a building transaction.

BRUTAL MURDER OF BANK RUNNER

Two Men Robbed Messenger of $95,000, Beat Him to Death and Buried Body

Said to Have Confessed—Camden, N. J., Police Claim Jurisdiction in Case

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 8.—Camden county police authorities will claim jurisdiction in the case of the murder of David S. Paul, the Camden bank runner who, according to the police, was killed by Frank J. James and Raymond W. Schuchter of the city.

Both James and Schuchter, it was announced by the police, confessed. They are in jail at Mount Holly, Burlington county, in which jurisdiction the body of Paul was found. Paul was killed in Camden county, and it is expected the accused men will be brought here shortly to stand trial.

In the alleged confessions, James and Schuchter accuse each other of killing Paul. The murder was committed in daylight in a motor car in Arch street, this city, the two men are said to have told the authorities, after Paul, who was on his way to a Philadelphia bank with $95,000 in cash and checks, had been invited to ride to the ferry in James' automobile. He was struck on the head and rendered unconscious and when he later regained consciousness he was dealt a death blow.

DECLARE WAR ON VAMPS

Flirting on Boston Common Must Stop—Eight Police Women to Be Named

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Flirting on Boston common will become a dangerous practice after Feb. 1 when plans announced by Mayor Peters today for the appointment of Boston's first women police officers go into effect. The mayor said he consulted with Police Commissioner Curtis regarding means of ridding the common of some of the "vamps" of both sexes who have made it a hunting ground, and that as a result eight policewomen would be selected from the civil service lists for appointment to duty there. Their pay, like that of the men, will be $1400 to start.

POLICE FORCE TO RESIGN

Will Quit Unless He Can Find Real House to Make His Home When Off Duty

ESSEX FALLS, N. J., Nov. 8.—The police force of this village has threatened to resign unless he can find a real home to make his home in when off duty.

Samuel Mullins is chief-of-police, sergeant and patrolman. By day he protects the village from stray cows and by night from prowling robbers, but in his spare time he has no satisfactory home, because of the housing shortage.

He used to be only half the police force, but his partner, Henry Clay Skidmore, resigned October 1 because he couldn't find suitable lodging. The borough council now expects to pass a resolution providing for the erection of two houses. Then the city fathers will double the size of the police force.

PRES. WILSON BEGINS WORK ON MESSAGE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—President Wilson has begun work on his annual message to congress which will be presented to the body in the opening day of the next session on December 6, or on the day following.

White House officials said today they had no information as to what recommendations the president plans to make to congress, but administration officers said that among other things he will again urge enactment of a number of reconstruction measures which he recommended at the first special session of the present congress early last year.

This week, he will receive three Latin-American diplomats who have arrived in Washington within the last few weeks. They are Emilio Joubert, minister from San Domingo; Dr. Julio Bianchi, minister from Guatemala, and Dr. Octavio Berche, minister from Costa Rica.

RELEASE OF "NICKY"

ARNSTEIN ORDERED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Reversing the federal district court, the supreme court today ordered the release of Julius W. ("Nicky") Arnstein, who has been in prison in New York since August 10, on charges of contempt following his refusal to answer questions put to him in a bankruptcy hearing. His name was connected with operations of bond thieves in New York.

Arnstein in his appeal to the supreme court contended he was within his rights in refusing to answer questions which he considered might tend to incriminate him, and maintained that he had waived no constitutional rights in filing schedules in bankruptcy in accordance with another order of the New York courts.

550 AMERICAN DEAD TO REMAIN IN ENGLAND

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The bodies of about 550 American soldiers who died in England to remain permanently in that country by request of the families of the men. Secretary Baker announced today that orders had been given to concentrate the bodies in a permanent cemetery near London which will be under the perpetual care and control of the American government.

All other American dead in Great Britain have been returned to the United States, according to the war department announcement.

HOLY CROSS COLLEGE FUND CAMPAIGN

A drive for $10,000 in Lowell as part of the $100,000 to be raised throughout the country for Holy Cross college was opened in this city this morning under the direction of a committee of local Holy Cross graduates. Members of the committee report that in other towns and cities where the drives were held, quotas were over-subscribed in most every instance. As much as $10,000 is considered a small sum for a city as large as Lowell, the committee expects the amount to be largely over-subscribed. The drive will continue until Nov. 25.

DECISION BY SUPREME COURT

Important Ruling Handed Down on Appeal of New York Man

Also Permits Transportation of Liquor From Warehouse to Home

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Liquor lawfully acquired by a person for his personal use may be stored in a place other than his home under a ruling today by the supreme court.

The court's decision was on an appeal brought by William G. Street, of New York, from lower court decrees refusing an injunction prohibiting federal prohibition officers from seizing liquor which he had stored in a room leased from a safe deposit company. The court declared congress did not intend to prohibit such storage when the liquor was lawfully acquired for a lawful purpose.

Justice Clarke also held that the transportation of lawfully acquired liquor from a warehouse to the home of the owner did not constitute "transportation" within the meaning of the enforcement act.

The decision was rendered by Associate Justice Clark. The lower court, in upholding the portion of the enforcement act interpreted by prohibition enforcement officials as prohibiting storage except in the home, held that congress under the police power delegated by the prohibition amendment had authority to prohibit any transportation of liquors and that in order to reduce the necessity for transportation to a minimum, it had the power to legislate as to the places where liquor might lawfully be possessed.

The Clarke said was simply a warehouse corporation lawfully permitted to be stored in its warehouse, after the effective date of the Volstead act, liquors admitted to have been lawfully acquired before that date and which are so stored, solely and in good faith, for the purpose of protecting them until they shall be consumed by the owner and his family or bona fide guests.

After answering the question in the affirmative, Justice Clarke declared the court could not bring itself to the conclusion that such retention of the liquor on the part of the storage company constituted "possession" within the meaning of the section under consideration. Nor would the transportation of such stores to the legal residence of the owner from the warehouse constitute "transportation" under the act.

The opinion suggested that congress might have inadvertently omitted having declared such storage unlawful, but regarded it as more probable that the framers of the law had deliberately left this means of preserving lawful stores of liquor to those not possessing compulsion dwellings.

MEDICAL EXAMINER TO INVESTIGATE DEATH

Mrs. Eva (Lamontagne) Golin, aged about 15 years, died at the Chelmsford street hospital yesterday morning and her death is now being investigated by Medical Examiner T. B. Smith. Mrs. Golin was found in a dying condition in her room in the Marin block, in Merrimack street Saturday noon and was rushed to the Chelmsford street hospital, where she passed away yesterday. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertaker Napoleon Boleston.

Mrs. Golin was living alone in a room in the Marin block. Her husband, a wood chopper, is now in the New Hampshire woods and an effort is being made to get in communication with him. When found Saturday Mrs. Golin was unconscious and died without regaining her senses. Dr. Smith has given orders to have the body remain at the undertaking rooms for a few days so that the dead woman's relatives may be located before she is buried.

CONDITIONS IN FRANCE

Nation Has Shown Same Ardor in Work of Reconstruction as in War

PARIS, Nov. 8.—France has shown the same ardor in her work of reconstruction as she did in the war, and has successfully crossed the passage from war to peace, which is always difficult for victors, says Premier Leger in an interview printed today by the Petit Parisien. He declares the government will seek to maintain and strengthen its alliances and will examine in utmost sincerity of spirit all questions arising between France and Germany.

Belief is expressed by M. Leger that the League of Nations must become a great force and a strong barrier against a return of imperialism and militarism. He declares the government's program is so to enforce execution of the Versailles treaty, that national reconstruction and the organization of work and production may be advanced.

PREACHED SERMON ON SOCIAL SERVICE

"Jesus never told anyone to go to church," asserted D. D. Vaughan, of Boston university, in a sermon on "Social Service," in the Centralville Methodist Episcopal church, yesterday morning. "I believe there is something fundamentally wrong with the man or woman who does not attend church," continued the speaker, "but Jesus did not make church membership or church attendance a matter of basic importance."

The people who went to eternal punishment, Mr. Vaughan said, went there not because they did not go to church, but because they failed to live up to their civil obligations.

"We have had a God sometimes in the past," the speaker claimed, "who was not as good as Jesus. We are gradually getting back to the conception of God as the Father of mankind."

"It is right for a minister to make the ten commandments the subject of his sermons, but it is also essential that he shall preach social conditions that will enable men to keep the commandments."

"Boston has a fairly good street car

system in all except cars and rails. But, if cattle were crowded in cars as people are crowded in the subway, the United States government would interfere for the protection of the cattle. Watering stock is just as much stealing as holding up men in the street."

"When we had the open saloon, I used to think of it when I said, 'Forgive us our debts.' I was a part of the society that kept the saloon in existence. So there are times when it is impossible for a man to be as good a Christian as he would like to be because of social conditions. When we socialized our temperance enthusiasm, we began to Christianize the social order."

"One man said that Christ performed miracles because He wanted to make Christians. That is a slander on Christ. He performed miracles because He could not help it. Suppose, on your way home from church today, you saw a baby lying in the street, abandoned and crying. You would take it to your home and care for it. Would you do it to get people to join the Methodist church? It would be an insult for people to say that."

"I have seen women draw their skirts aside from women whom they thought were not what they should be. Some will say that those things are instinctive, but it is not so. We are what we are because of our surroundings."

"Did the good samaritan ask a man to go to church? No, he did not. The matter of religion was never mentioned. It seems to me it is time for the church to go to work in absolute self forgetfulness, to go out in the spirit of Christ, and not lie a text of Scripture in every sandwich we distribute. It is human nature to tie up with a personality rather than with an institution. So, if you are going to have an institution that will function in the community you want to go out with love in your heart."

ADMITS MURDER OF HIS FORMER SWEETHEART

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 8.—Albert Ellis, 21 years old, was held today awaiting preliminary hearing, following his alleged confession yesterday that he killed his former sweetheart, Edna Ellis, 18, here Thursday night, because she refused to accept his attention after breaking off their engagement.

The murder was discovered Friday morning, when the girl's body, the throat and hands slashed, was found in a vacant lot near her home.

Ellis was arrested Saturday and after emphatically denying any knowledge of the crime, weakened under cross-examination, according to the police, and said that he "waited for the girl as she returned from work and attacked her when she refused to talk to him."

FIGHTING RESUMED

Lithuanian and Polish "Volunteers" in Battle

WARSAW, Nov. 7. (By the Associated Press)—Fighting has been resumed between Lithuanian troops and the Polish "volunteer" army commanded by General Zeligowski. An official statement from General Zeligowski's headquarters declared the Lithuanians, without replying to a proposal for negotiations, attacked the Poles near Giedrojc, north of Vilna, forcing them to retreat. The Poles later launched a counter attack, capturing 30 prisoners, who included one German and one Chinese.

Polish newspapers estimate that more than 50,000 Germans, some in uniform, have passed through East Prussia to Lithuania during the last few weeks. German newspapers have reported fully equipped German contingents marching into Lithuania with light artillery, sending heavy artillery by rail.

90th Day of Hunger Strike

CORK, Nov. 8.—Reports from the Cork jail today described the condition of the nine remaining Irish hunger strikers there as precarious. Although this was the 90th day of their strike the emaciated prisoners were declared to be still determined to refuse food as they have done since Aug. 11.—There were originally eleven of the Cork hunger strikers, but Michael Fitzgerald died Oct. 17, and Joseph Murphy on Oct. 25, within a few hours of the death of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork, in Brixton prison, London, on the 73rd day of his hunger strike.

Scores of Indictments Expected

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—The federal grand jury which for two weeks has been investigating whiskey rings in Chicago and other cities today considered the evidence it had obtained. Federal officials expected scores of indictments to be returned against saloon keepers and others. Federal authorities wired of Washington asking that no passports be issued to the men expected to be indicted, as information had been obtained that several were planning to leave for Cuba.

Help That Aching Back!

Is your back giving out? Are you tortured with a dull, nagging backache and sudden, stabbing pains? Does the least exertion leave you tired, miserable, "all played out"? Do you feel you just can't keep going? You owe it to yourself then, to find out what is wrong and lose no time in correcting it. Likely it's your kidneys. Overwork, colds, chills, insufficient rest and the hurry and worry of present-day living, tend to weaken and slow up the kidneys. Backache, with that tired, "all worn-out" feeling is the first warning. Headaches and dizziness may come, too, and perhaps some annoying kidney irregularity. Get back your health before the trouble becomes serious. Help the overworked kidneys with DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS and assist the medicine by careful living. DOAN'S have brought health to thousands. They should help you. ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR!

These Are Lowell Cases:

PUFFER STREET

Mrs. H. M. Lorrain, 35 Puffer street, says: "I had severe attacks of backache and couldn't rest at night. In the morning I was as tired as when I went to bed. I often had dizzy headaches. My kidneys acted irregularly and annoyed me. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my family with benefit, so I got a supply and used them. They soon had my back strong and well. I felt like a different woman and I am always glad to endorse Doan's."

MIDLAND STREET

Q. A. Foster, city fireman, 29 Midland street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have proven their value to me at different times. My kidneys caused me a great deal of trouble, especially when I took cold or over-exerted. Severe pains and a dull ache across my back made it hard for me to stoop or do any lifting. The kidney secretions passed irregularly. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they relieved the aches and pains in my back and regulated my kidneys. I can recommend them to anyone troubled as I was."

WALNUT STREET

Alex Paterson, baker, 31 Walnut street, says: "Kidney trouble kept me miserable for some time. My back ached and I could hardly stoop while at my work. It was just as hard for me to straighten up. My kidneys acted irregularly. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a supply, using them as directed. They rid me of the backaches and kidney trouble."

No package of Doan's Kidney Pills is genuine unless it bears the maple-leaf trade-mark and the signature—"Jas. Doan."

FERNALD STREET

Olier J. St. Pierre, 12 Fernald Street, says: "My kidneys were weak for a long time and every time I over-lifted, I had attacks of backache and sharp catches in the small of my back. My kidneys acted too frequently and annoyed me day and night. I tried different remedies, but didn't get any better. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they were what I needed, for it wasn't long before my back was well and strong and my kidneys were in a good, healthy condition."

FRANKLIN STREET

Mrs. M. L. Wells, 19 Franklin street, says: "My kidneys were weak and usually in the spring, I had attacks of backache. I also felt dull and ran down and had no energy at all. My work seemed a burden to me. My kidneys acted irregularly. A few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I have always used at these times, have never failed to put my kidneys in good order and restore my strength. They also have relieved the backaches and other signs of kidney complaint."

FREEDOM OF IRELAND

Arthur Griffith Tells How
England and Ireland Can
Live in Peace and Harmony

The following statement has been issued by Arthur Griffith, acting president of the Irish republic:

Our fight for independence has a world significance. It is a fight to decide whether any form of democratic or constitutional government can exist or whether the world is to be ruled by brute force alone.

When the Irish went to the polls they clearly expressed the will of the vast majority of the Irish people. Our members of parliament were elected under the same procedure as are the English members; the mandate came from the same source—the people of the country.

Yet the answer to that vote has been the filling of Ireland with English troops, the suppression of every political, national and cultural organization possessed by the people, the arrest and imprisonment of thousands of men and women, the shooting down of hundreds of civilians, the burning and looting of houses, destruction of factories and creameries, and the sacking of towns. All this is an effort to terrorize the people because of the vote they cast at the elections!

If the answer to the vote of a nation, lawfully and peacefully cast, is to be militaryism of this description, then that is the end of all government. Therefore, we in Ireland, in struggling for independence, are really the champions of the fight that has gone on through the ages, and up to a generation ago was thought by the world to be won—the fight to substitute despotic government by constitutional government based on the consent of the governed.

A settlement between Ireland and England can be come to immediately if England frankly recognizes in Ireland's case what she has recognized and advocated in the case of other countries—that the military power of no nation, or group of nations, shall be suffered to determine the fate of nations over which they have no right of rule but the right of force.

Ireland seeks no more than the acknowledgment of her independence. Provided that acknowledgment be made, she is quite ready to enter into a treaty by which the independence and security of the two countries can be mutually guaranteed.

These guarantees will include those in consistence with the integrity of the Irish nation, and will safeguard the rights of such a section as that of Northeast Ulster, which professes apprehension at the thought of an independent Ireland.

An independent Ireland can know no distinction between its citizens of different creeds or classes. It will be to its interest, as well as its duty, to safeguard all.

Look at the present situation. Every elected person to Dail Eireann, and all the republicans who voted in the various elections, are declared to have acted illegally and are, therefore, outlaws. This means that two-thirds of the entire population are outlaws.

Two hundred years ago Dean Swift, seeing the tyranny endured by Ireland in his day, said that the Irish people had only one right left—the

DON'T SUFFER
WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It drives out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

35c and 65c Jars, Hospital Size $3.00

right to cry out when being scourged. Two hundred years later even that right is taken from them. They are scourged, and if they complain they are sent to prison for sedition.

I would like to say to the English people:

For hundreds of years a government, to use Lloyd George's own words, has been striving to choke the voice of the Irish nation in its own blood.

You have made a country, which is your neighbor, and might be your friend—your policy an enemy. That country must continue to be your enemy while you continue that policy, because that policy is directed against its life, and it must fight for its life. Abandon that policy; freely admit that Ireland has the right to choose her own government, and Ireland ceases to be your enemy.

When you deal with Ireland as nation with nation, there will no longer be an enemy on your flank. She will be a country by your side whose interest and whose will it will be to live in peace and amity with you.

BOSTON THEATRE
SAFE CRACKED

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Safe crackers, bold and of no mean cleverness, effected entrance to the Old South theatre manager's office late Saturday night or early yesterday morning, opened the "can" without making too much noise about it, and made a clean getaway with $1400 in currency.

This is a movie house, and the doings of desperadoes and the details of great gem robberies flashing across its screen have enthralled thousands. Nobody but the principals to it enjoyed this thriller; when the manager arrived yesterday afternoon to open up shop he readily saw that the stunt was realistic enough.

AMERICAN LEGION'S
SECOND ANNUAL BALL

There are so many working in behalf of the American Legion second annual ball which is to be held in Association hall on Wednesday evening, the night before Armistice day, that it is expected to be a great success. Benjamin Muloney is chairman of the committee in charge. It is to be an informal party and there will be many novel features not to be found at any other event of its kind. Mayor Thompson and the city commissioners have been asked to be present and the officers of nearby Legion posts and the state commander and other state Legion officers will participate. The evening will open with a grand march led by Floor Director Daniel Brennan, followed by the assistant floor director, Martin McCarthy, the invited guests and officers of the Lowell post. Dancing will continue until 1 o'clock.

The reception committee consists of the following members of the legion and the women's auxiliary: Benjamin J. Muloney, chairman; Luther W. Minn, Pauline, Arthur P. Moran, Curtis Garity, James P. McCreedy, Eli B. Hart, Fred Estes, Charles A. Stevens, Robert Glinvan, Stephen Kearney, George F. Toye, James Hogan, John J. Cullen, Hon. John Jacob Rogers, Jackson Palmer, M. H. DEBS MAKES REPLY

Would Be Ashamed To Be at Large Under Present Chaotic Conditions of Society, He Says

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 8.—Eugene V. Debs, whom it became known Washington Saturday the president has no intention of pardoning, wants his case to come last of all persons imprisoned for violation of war time laws, or better yet, not at all, under the present administration, according to a statement from Debs given out yesterday through his attorney.

The statement follows: "I understand that each political prisoner will be considered separately, and I hope my case will come last of all. I really would rather that it would come not at all under the present administration, because I would be ashamed to be at large under the chaotic conditions of society."

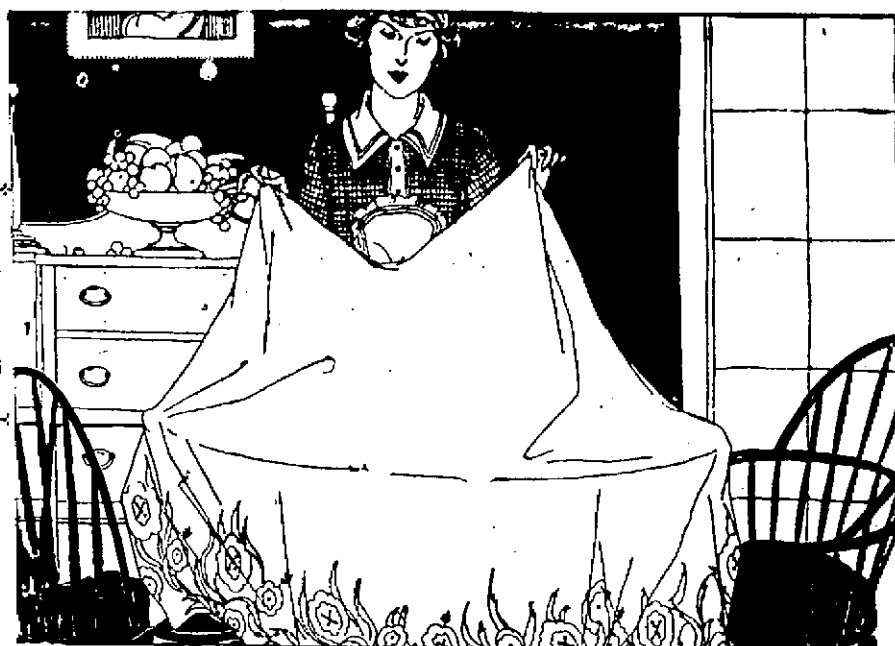

MEETING FOR WOMEN

There was a large attendance at the meeting for women held in the assembly hall of the Sacred Heart school yesterday, and all present spent a most enjoyable afternoon, for the program was both interesting and instructive. The meeting was presided over by Rev. Bernard Fletcher, O.M.I., and there was appropriate singing by the church choir. Mrs. Alexander Curry presiding at the piano. The principal speaker was Mrs. Frank C. Scanlan of Milton, whose subject was "The Duties of Citizenship." City Clerk Flynn also gave an interesting talk on "Naturalization," while Miss Helen Wilson contributed an enjoyable solo. The guests at the meeting were Rev. John H. Doherty, O.M.I., Rev. Fr. Coffey, O.M.I., and Rev. Fr. O'Sullivan, O.M.I., the latter two of Tewksbury, and Miss Alice T. Lee, president of the League of Catholic Women.

SHE URGES AMERICAN NAMES FOR AMERICAN ARTISTS

FLORA VOORHIES

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—"American names for American artists" is the slogan for a campaign instituted by the Americanism committee of the Texas department of the American Legion. "Hundreds of American artists exist, and in some cases are superior, to foreigners," says Miss Flora Voorhies of New York. "But they're without engagements because they have plain American names. It's ridiculous that an American should have to change his name to a foreign-sounding one in order to gain success."

TAXPAYERS IN IRELAND AGITATED

DUBLIN, Nov. 8.—Taxpayers in Ireland are agitated over the question, who is to pay for the damages resulting from reprisals committed by the Black and Tan, or semi-military force, employed by the government, to suppress Sinn Féin disorders.

The total amount of damages resulting from Sinn Féin disorders, and reprisals by orangers and government agents in Ireland, is estimated to be nearly 10,000,000 pounds. Already awards amounting to 5,000,000 for damages inflicted by the Sinn Féiners have been assessed against the taxpayers.

The law prescribes that the taxpayer shall pay for all wilful damage to property or life maliciously inflicted. The county judges who pass upon claims arising from damages in Black and Tan reprisals have granted awards to the claimants and attempted to make them the charge against the local authorities. They have, however, indicated in their judgments that they believe the government should make good the losses caused by its own servants.

The principal taxpayers in Ireland are for the most part unionists, who are the largest property holders and would be hardest hit if the taxpayers were compelled to pay these damage claims. While they are anxious to help the government put down disorder, many disapprove of the Black and Tan reprisals and are unwilling to pay for the consequences of them.

The Irish Times, the principal unionist newspaper, demands that the government shall make a clear public statement "that the obligation to compensate for murder, arson and robbery committed by the servants of the government is acknowledged by the government and will be promptly met."

The government paid the bill of

IS THIS PAIR OLDEST WED COUPLE?

(N.E.A. Staff Special)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—These people believe they have been married longer than anybody else in the country. Dr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Moore of Washington recently celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary.

Are there any other couples who can show a longer record? Dr. Moore would like to receive a letter from them if they can top his 65 years of married life. His address is 213 P street, northwest, Washington, D. C.

Dr. Moore, who is 91 years old, has been smoking for 80 years! But he's about to give it up, he says, because he doesn't think smoking does him any good. He smokes a pipe and a very modern brand of cigars.

"I believe the secret of long life is early marriage," he says.

about 3,000,000 pounds for the damage suffered by the city of Dublin in the Easter week rebellion and this is pointed to as a precedent for similar action in the matter of Black and Tan reprisals.

It is expected that the government will also be asked to pay for the damage inflicted by the Sinn Féiners to which awards amounting to 5,000,000 pounds already have been made by county judges. Besides there is a bill for the damage done by orangers in Ulster towns.

THANKFUL FOR HER HEALTH

Before Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Mrs. Penkey was Miserably Ill.

Ottawa, Ohio.—"After the birth of my baby I was troubled with serious female trouble. At times I was so weak and nervous I could not stand it to hear my baby cry. I tried doctor's medicine with no results. At last a friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I did and am completely cured. I am thankful for your wonderful medicine and you can use my testimonial as you think best."

TO SEARCH FOR "MISSING LINK"

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The expedition sponsored by the American Museum of Natural History which will set forth for China next February will search not only for fossils of the ape-man, regarded by biologists as the "missing link" in the chain of evolution, but will study the aboriginal tribes now said to be fast disappearing in China.

"We know as little about some of the living natives as about the fossil history of the country," says Roy Chapman Andrews who will lead the expedition. "Long before the Chinese arrived, China was inhabited by aboriginal tribes, which were pushed south and west just as the Indians were driven westward by white men who advanced across the American continent."

"Remnants of nearly 30 of these tribes, such as the Lolo, Moso, Liso, and others, are rapidly disappearing, and the expedition expects to study them before they become extinct."

Describing these aborigines with whom he has hunted, Mr. Andrews said they are totally unlike Chinese, having tall and slender bodies, long faces, flat noses and other characteristics of Caucasian blood.

Mr. Andrews said that scientific men are now agreed in the belief that the oldest prehistoric remains of man, and of many beasts, lie somewhere within the great central Asiatic plateau, where few white men have ever penetrated.

One of the reasons why little is known of China's fossils and those of interior Asia is that material of this sort is carefully concealed by the Chinese, who term the relics "dragon's bones" and use them for medicinal purposes, said Mr. Andrews.

One result expected is the education of Americans in a knowledge of the immense continent across. Whether success or failure meets the attempt to find the missing link hundreds of thousands of specimens of Asiatic animal and plant life are to be collected and brought to America. These it is planned to place in the proposed $1,000,000 hall of Asiatic life in this city.

GEORGIA TECH AND CENTER AT ODDS

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 5.—Georgia Tech and Centre college may not meet on the gridiron next year, Dr. J. B. Grenshaw, athletic director at Tech, declared today in announcing that he had sent a telegram to Prof. Frank S. Halsey, faculty chairman of athletics at Centre, asking whether newspaper articles criticizing the playing of the Tech team in the recent game between the two institutions "represent feeling and opinions of your college."

"If they do," the telegram continued, "Georgia Tech will not under any circumstances consider a game with Centre college next year."

Dr. Grenshaw said that many articles "vilifying" the Georgia Tech team had appeared in newspapers. The articles, he added, "purported to come from members of Centre's team, Centre's coach, and also officials of Centre college."

The two teams played here Oct. 30, Tech winning, 21 to 6.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Adolph Rondeau and Miss Marie Coulombe were married this morning at a nuptial mass celebrated at eight o'clock at St. Joseph's church by Rev. Armand Baron, O.M.I. During the mass appropriate hymns were sung by the Notre Dame de Lourdes sodality choir of which the bride was a member. Miss Lena B. Camire presiding at the organ. The bride was attired in white georgette with veil caught up with a wreath of roses and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her brother, Mr. Wilfrid Coulombe, while the groom's witness was his brother, Mr. Emmanuel Rondeau. At the close of the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride, 2 Lavalley place off Aiken street, where a wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Rondeau, who were the recipients of numerous wedding gifts, left later on a honeymoon trip to Central Falls, N. H., and upon their return in a week they will make their home at 2 Lavalley place.

Collins—Ford
Mr. William A. Collins of 57 Fifth avenue, this city, and Miss Mildred Ford of Brockton, Mass., were united in marriage Saturday morning at a nuptial mass celebrated by Rev. Fr. Creamer in St. Patrick's church, Nashua, N. H. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Anita Collins, who was attired in a tan broadcloth suit with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The best man was Mr. George L. Collins, a brother of the groom. The bride's gift to the bride-maid was a beautiful signet ring, while the groom's favor to the best man was a gold vest chain and knife. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, after which the happy couple left on a wedding trip to New York city, and upon their return they will make their home in Brockton, Mass.

MORE MONEY FOR STREET MAINTENANCE

More funds for street and sewer maintenance work will be needed by the local street department this year if that department is to make any response to pleas for employment by men who are out of work owing to the current industrial slackness. Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy says. Had not the local mills curtailed their activities, Mr. Murphy says he would have had enough to carry him through the year, but with daily increasing demand for employment, extra funds will be needed if his department is to assist in relieving the situation. Just now much will be needed for street maintenance the commissioner will not know until all the October bills are in. A few weeks ago the municipal council granted him an extra $30,000 loan for sewer work and at that time some of the members of the council doubted that he would have time to spend it all before the cold weather should set in. At the present time there is but $1700 of that appropriation remaining and there is no immediate prospect of curtailment of sewer work, as far as weather conditions are concerned.

Street maintenance has always been more popular with employees than sewer work but if the demand for employment becomes too incessant, applicants will have to take what is offered them. Just to secure more funds he has not yet decided, but it is probable that after his departmental accounts have been gone over, he will lay the matter before the council with the recommendation that more funds be voted to relieve the unemployment situation.

ELIZABETH HARRISON
PRES. HARRISON'S
DAUGHTER TO WED

NEW YORK.—Miss Elizabeth Harrison, youngest daughter of the late Benjamin Harrison, president of the United States, and Mrs. Harrison of Indianapolis and New York, is soon to become the bride of James Blaine Walker, Jr., a grand-nephew of the late James G. Blaine, secretary of state in Harrison's cabinet and also himself a candidate for president against Grover Cleveland. Miss Harrison is a lawyer and has been admitted to the bar in New York and Indiana. She says her marriage will not interfere with her law practice.

CITY WELL EQUIPPED WITH ONE-MAN CARS

With the introduction of one-man cars on the Reading-Boston route tomorrow there will be 40 one-man cars on duty in this city. The change from the two-man cars to the new style for the Reading route was scheduled for yesterday, but because of some delay on the Reading end of the line it was put over until tomorrow. The one-man cars on the Reading line will be of the jumbo type and will run direct to the Reading square. Two-man cars will be retained on the Lowell-Lawrence route, a long and fast line, and on the Chelmsford route, but all other lines in the city will be served by the new cars.

An official of the street railway company stated this morning that with the addition of one-man cars on new lines there has been some delay due to the inexperience of the motormen and because they have not been used to handling the money. In a few days, however, he said, the delay from these causes would be removed and the new cars would be giving good service. The company has four inspectors at work as instructors and they are proving of great assistance to the new one-man drivers. To assist in removing all delay in the service the officials again ask that passengers have the correct fare ready when entering or leaving the cars.

Whether or not more one-man cars would be added to the equipment of the Eastern Mass. Street Railway Co.

local division of the railway could not be stated this morning by Vard Leavitt, assistant superintendent, but he said that at present Lowell was well equipped. During the rush hours, in the morning and evening whatever extra car service will be needed will be furnished by cars of the two-man type because all one-man cars will be continuous service. When asked whether the Northeastern car running to Canobie lake will be connected with any route in this city during the coming spring and winter, Mr. Leavitt said it had not been decided. It is possible, however, that the Northeastern car will run as far as the head of Moody street and that one-man cars will connect with it as is being done at the present time. One-man car service in the city will be uniform if the Northeastern jumbo two-man cars were connected with any route as they have been running out Andover street.

In speaking of the jumbo one-man cars it was stated this morning that they are equipped with a safety device which allows the rear door to be opened from the front in case of emergency and other appliances which stop the car immediately if anything should happen to the motorman.

Now that Lowell is to be served with one-man cars and the public will not be protected from the violations by conductors, a campaign to stop smoking in cars will be inaugurated by the railway officials. New "No Smoking" signs will be posted in all cars and the attention of the police and the board of health will be sought. The railway company has received many complaints from women about men making the one-man cars "smoking rooms." Because there is no conductor to forbid it there is a tendency for menfolk to smoke in the rear of the one-man cars, but the railway company promises to take steps to stop this violation.

He was released on bail for his appearance before United States Commissioner Hayes in Boston today. Officers Holt and Goham of Tyngsboro and Federal Officer John O'Dea made the arrest. A small still and a small quantity of liquor are alleged to have been found on the premises. The death rate among Hawaiians is so much greater than the birth-rate, that it is believed the race will live only about 75 years longer.

MORE EFFICIENT GOVERNMENT

It was Emerson who said, "You cannot indict a whole people." Yet that is very nearly what is attempted when it is insisted that the citizens of Lowell, in the long run, get just as good, or as bad, a municipal government as they want.

It is probably true that the voters get as satisfactory a government as is possible under existing conditions. Men of the highest character and of demonstrated ability do not normally come forward as candidates for public office. As another election draws near, we are having a repetition of an old-repeated spectacle. Political hacks, who have a taste of the delights of feeding unhindered at the public crib, are entering themselves in the race for municipal office. Some of these men have already been tried in public positions and dumped out because their services were not satisfactory. In most cases it is impossible to veil the truth that the seekers for place are animated primarily, if not solely, by a desire to get a profitable place on the city's pay rolls. Most of these men would be laughed at if they should seek a position as that of agent of one of Lowell's mills. Yet the business of administering the city's affairs is of far more importance than the duties that pertain to the office of any mill official.

It would be putting the figure very low to say that every wage earner in Lowell works, on an average, three weeks out of every year for the city. Working for the city, in this sense, is not the ultima thule that is the dream of so many ravenous patriots anxious for a place on the payroll. It is meant that the product of three weeks of toll goes to pay for carrying on the city government.

The welfare of every man and woman of Lowell is intimately bound up with that of the city government. They pay the bills, whether the government is good or bad, and in the case of an inefficient and wasteful government they not only pay but they get cheated out of a fair return for their money.

The problem of the day is to get better, equipped men, better trained men, men of the highest standing, men who have demonstrated their ability for the conduct of affairs in private life, to become candidates for municipal office. The great war showed us that it is possible to draft such men into the unselfish service of the public. They came forward in numbers to fill the trenches, and without hope of gain, in Liberty Bond sales, Red Cross drives, and various other activities. Is it impossible that men of this class can be brought to see the necessity for serving as patriotically the city in which they make their homes, in which their children are being brought up, in which their most important interests are centered?

The time is ripe for such men to step again to the front. We believe they will do so, if they can be made to realize the seriousness and importance of the task that lies ahead and if the charter commission succeeds in evolving a charter that will promote and facilitate a good government.

THE MANDATORIES

Now that we have repudiated the League of Nations, we may be told that it is none of our business what the league does, what its members do with the subject peoples put under so-called "mandates," provided nothing is done to affect American interests.

When the covenant was first given out, it was understood that the mandate was an official order from the league addressed to some great power to take charge of a subject people for the purpose of directing them along the lines of good government and preparing them for independence. It appears, however, that the nations that have accepted such mandates are already exploiting the peoples thus placed under their control, for selfish ends. In some cases, the authority of the mandatory power has been fiercely resisted and as fiercely enforced by the use of military force.

It appears, therefore, that the peoples so "protected" are to be treated simply as colonies, and in most cases exploited as colonies usually are by the governing power.

England has taken over nearly all of the German colonies; France gets several others, and England, France and Italy are in charge of Turkey with the outcome of their control quite uncertain, although there is no doubt that they will use military force if necessary to promote their own interests in the Turkish empire. Already they have arranged for railroad exploitation for their own benefit rather than that of Turkey, which will have to pay the expenses and a great deal more.

The mandates under the League of Nations are likely to lead to the oppression of the peoples so controlled instead of their being led along the path of progress toward freedom and independence. There was a time not so long ago when several peoples or small nations were yoked together to make a kingdom, the people of which were to have little or no voice in their own government. It seems that the mandates under the League of Nations are to be no better, if we are to judge of the manner in which they are being conducted at the present time.

AMERICANS IN SIBERIA

There is a vast significance in the news that an American syndicate has secured from the soviet government of Russia a lease of an immense tract of land in Kamchatka, Siberia. The land lies Alaska. That is to say, across Bering strait, America is only 54 miles distant.

Japan hitherto has claimed special rights in the Orient because of her proximity to concessions on the mainland. America will now be entitled to the same consideration.

Profound effects upon the future history of the Far East may follow from this cause.

American citizens are free to lease land in Russia or any other part of the world; but the government of the United States cannot guarantee them protection or be responsible for their conduct.

The succeeding government of Russia will repudiate many contracts of the Bolsheviks. But, it is not certain that this Siberian lease will be invalidated. The contract area is a cold wilderness. Russia has never shown a desire or ability to develop it. But American enterprise and pioneering genius, backed by American capital, are capable of redeeming the country for civilization and democracy as Alaska has been redeemed.

In exploring Siberia for oil and minerals, Americans will be brought face to face with Japan upon territory which the Japanese pretend is sacred to their own exploitation. Japan must then reckon with a competitor in Siberia whose purpose is not to disturb the sovereign rights of the inhabitants. Rather, the competitor's purpose is to seek wealth by making the inhabitants themselves prosperous.

TO SAVE CHILDREN FROM DEATH

That is a humane movement started by Herbert Hoover for a fund of $23,000,000 for the relief of the starving children of Europe. It is a fact that in several countries of Europe thousands of children are threatened with death from lack of food and fuel during the coming winter. In Austria particularly the conditions are most pitiable. The peace congress—Wilson, Lloyd George and Clemenceau—decided the death of Austria by dismembering the empire and leaving what remains of Austria without the natural resources by which a nation can exist. As a result, the people have been dying by thousands of starvation and cold without any prospect of relief. Unless aid reaches them very soon, it is expected that no fewer than 100,000 will be sent to other countries for the winter to escape death from cold and starvation.

It would indeed be a most meritorious and humane work to raise a fund to feed these and children of other countries in similar straits. The amount mentioned by Mr. Hoover sounds big, but it could easily be raised by a nation of over a hundred million people and would be raised promptly if the actual conditions were known here.

It is encouraging to find a magazine so influential as the Literary Digest taking up this movement and heading the list with the liberal donation of $25,000. It is hoped that good progress will be made on the fund within the next month so that it may be available in the countries that need it most before Christmas.

SURPLUS WAR STOCK

Director E. C. Morse, who has had charge of the sale of surplus war supplies, has resigned after having sold since April, 1919, war stocks costing more than $1,555,000,000. He claims that an average of 63 per cent of the cost has been realized. He sold the two great powder-making plants at Nitro, W. Virginia, at what was regarded as reasonable, although far short of the actual cost. The plants were constructed for the manufacture of smokeless powder and would have rendered good service had the war been prolonged. They will be used for other lines of manufacture, thus compensating in some measure for loss on the original cost.

Textiles, exclusive of wool, amounting to $117,000,000, have been sold; airplane material and equipment, $27,000,000; clothing and equipment, $18,000,000; ferrous metals, $39,000,000; non-ferrous metals, $68,000,000; and land and buildings, $165,000,000. Inasmuch as army stores for the sale of food and clothing are still in operation in many of the large cities of the country it would appear that the surplus of food, principally canned bacon, meat and vegetables, is still far from exhausted.

SOVIET PROPAGANDA HERE

Either the Bolsheviks of Russia are furnishing money to flood this nation with soviet propaganda or else their friends and disciples, the socialists, are doing this work and paying for the literature sent around our streets extolling the soviet regime of Russia.

Emma Goldman and her pals, who have been deported to Russia, would like to come back; and it is hoped that those who are enamored of the soviet system of government will betake them to Russia as quickly as they can.

The 13,000 socialists of Massachusetts who voted for Debs constitute something of a menace to our liberties, but they will be held within the limits of the law in all their activities.

The police should find out from what source this literature was issued and distributed throughout this city. Evidently some of the local socialists are identified with this work, and if so, they should be found and punished if they have violated the law. If the ordinances do not already provide a penalty for the distribution of Red literature, the oversight should be promptly remedied.

Little of the Past

At the recent centennial tea, given by the Woman's Press club of Indiana, the following was placed on one of the quilts exhibited: "The blue and white blocks in this quilt were made by the grandmothers of a century ago. This quilt is not so remarkable, but the quilt was—she lived with her for 30 years."

Many inquiries came to the donor to know whether any of the descendants of the woman were still in the land of the living.—Indianapolis News.

A Solemn Convert

The temperance reformer was justly proud of having converted the biggest drunkard in a Scottish town and introduced him to the local grave digger—to get up on the platform and testify. This is how he did it: "My friends," he said, "I never thought to stand upon this platform with the prospect on one side of me and a tomb on the other side of me. I never thought to tell you for a whole month I've not touched a drop of anything. I've come enough to buy me a brass oak leaf and brass handles and brass nails, and I'm a teetotaler for another month I shall be wanting it."

Failed Leaves

Don't burn the leaves! To do so means to destroy the most valuable of fertilizing ingredients known to man—nitrogen. Besides being the most valuable, nitrogen is the most expensive of fertilizing elements and most difficult to secure in commercial form. Flower gardens, rose bushes, strawberries, raspberries, fruit and even shade trees should receive a mulch of the leaves, as they fall from the trees. Be careful that the mulch is not raked too high about the trunk of the tree as rats and mice sometimes make nests in the leaves and during the winter, when food is scarce, gnaw the green bark for food. If there is a great abundance of leaves rake them on the garden this fall, any depth, and then turn them under in the spring. If this is continued each year the garden will need little else for fertilizer.

The Rich Neighbor

Aloysius Adolphus Jenks, he bought a motor car.

The tickled neighbors all exclaimed: "How fortunate we are!"

And one and all, yes, all as one, with satisfaction signed.

Expecting that A. J. would come and take them out to ride.

But not a single one of them is in their neighbor's debt.

For not a single one of them has been invited yet.

But A. J. Jenks, he also bought a costly graphophone.

Enabling him to have at will some music all his own.

The neighbors shut their windows down, with vigor, so to speak.

And still with all the windows shut they hear the blamed thing squeak.

They haven't had the rides they thought would give them such delight.

But Mr. Jenks' graphophone plays for them day and night.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

The tastes and likes and dislikes of men and women take peculiar turns. There is no accounting for some of them. It is fortunate, though, that we do not all think alike, otherwise all, instead of nearly all, of us would have voted for Harding. In a home in the Oaklands the lord and master of the house is permitted to have a den on the top floor. It is a very pleasant room; albeit it is a little untidy, although the owner insists that that is one of the necessary conditions for making it thoroughly comfortable. On the door is a sign that reads: "I imagine it would not be safe to display in every home. It reads: 'To My Wife—Keep Out.' The owner explains that this is not due to any desire to have a refuge to which he can escape from the society of his better half, but to a proclivity that she has for cleaning things up, and that if he gave her free access to his den he would never be able to find his pipe and tobacco until after the inclination to smoke had passed. On the walls of his den is hung a brass plate that furnishes evidence of the peculiar taste of the occupant. On the plate is engraved the following inscription: "Good friend, for Jesus' sake forbear To dig the dust enclosed here. And hie thee he who spares these bones."

And cursed be he who moves my bones."

Readers who are familiar with the life of the Bard of Avon will not need to be told that the lines are taken from the stone above the grave of Shakespeare. Rather a gruesome ornament for a Lowell den. But there it is. Just under it is a replica of a human skull that serves as a pipe bowl, and close by a miniature, oil-fashioned coffin filled with tobacco.

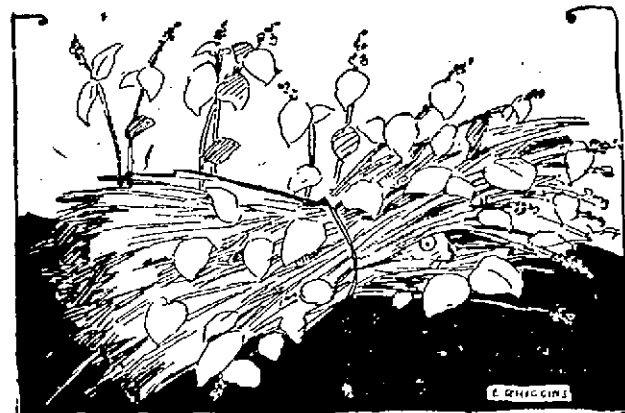

Getting arrested in Lowell isn't half so embarrassing as it is used to be. Judging from the circumstances that surrounded the arrest of one individual here last Saturday. The arrest was made at the patrol box in Merrimack street opposite Button street. The offender was intoxicated and the arresting officer gripped one arm while he rang in a call for the police patrol. Ten or eleven years ago the next feature of the arrest would be the gathering of a large crowd around the offender and the officer, but on this occasion passersby simply gave an occasional glance and then went on their way. Ten or eleven years ago the old black police patrol wagon with its white horse would come thumping up the street and the offender would be roughly pushed into the vehicle. A year ago or even a few months ago, instead of the patrol wagon there would come the police automobile patrol, with its polished railings at the rear and the words "Lowell Police Department" painted in large letters on the side. ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

A PRISONER

"What's happened?" cried Chip. And it had sharp knives that were whistling off great armfuls of buckwheat stalks, then throwing them up into the air, and then they were falling down on the ground. Half the field was covered with these bundles lying in straight rows like ranks of fallen soldiers. But he discovered another thing of greater importance to him by far.

CHIP PUT HIS EYE TO THE HOLE

the bang, buzz of the big thing that he had decided was a monstrous bee, the big iron thing that had gone on its way through the buckwheat field. He couldn't move at first but gradually he wriggled and scratched and clawed until he got a little crack opened up where the daylight showed through, a crack just big enough for one eye to peep out.

Chip put his eye to the hole, and behold, he found out in a trice what had happened to him and what the thing was that was making the noise. It had wheels and two horses were pulling it, and a man was driving.

he had discovered what had happened to himself.

Mind you, Chip was inside one of the bundles and tied up as tightly as an express package. He could use his paws a little, and turn his head a bit, but his tail—his poor tail was tied right in with the buckwheat stalks and he knew he could never pull it out.

"Oh, dear, why did I play truant?" he began to whimper. "Why didn't I go to the Meadow Grove School like a good boy, and mind Mr. Scribble Scratch, the schoolmaster, I wonder if Nick will find me? Or Nancy?"

to showing that under present conditions there, Christianity is needed as much if not more than in Asia, Africa or Australia. The display of the pictures was accompanied by explanations and interesting messages by Dr. Spaulding. Tuesday evening the directors of the Lowell Goodwill Industries will entertain at the supper in the church a number of those interested in the activities which they direct. Dr. E. J. Hiding of the Morgan Memorial church of Boston will be the principal speaker and has promised to tell of the goodwill industries of which he is the founder. The public is cordially invited to attend at 7 o'clock. The meeting will provide opportunity to learn of the work recently established in the Hubbard house in French street.

DOUBLE WEDDING

A pretty double wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Dickey, of 78 Vaneer street, Sunday evening when Miss Gertrude Lillian Dickey, their daughter, became the bride of Private Jesse G. Stouffer of the London zoo has a cockatoo that is more than 50 years old.

WILL GO TO ROME

Lowell Priest to Enter College of the Propaganda

Rev. William W. Noonan, O.M.I., of the Immaculate Conception church, will sail next Friday for Rome to take up a special course in advanced theology and associated studies at the College of the Propaganda. He is of his special knowledge of the subject and his exceptional scholastic success during his period of training for the priesthood. Rev. Mr. Noonan has received this call for special work in his chosen field.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Noonan of 67 Andover street and is a graduate of the Immaculate Conception school, the Lowell high school and the Catholic University at Washington, D. C. He also studied at Buffalo. At each institution he led his classes and won high honors. He is the first Lowell member of the Oblate order to be called for this work and one of the very few in the United States.

LIKE New World, Says Mrs. Hewes, Massachusetts Woman After Suffering Four Years in Perfect Health, Now.

"No one knows all the pain and agony I suffered during the past four years, thanks to Tanlac that's all. I am now feeling just fine," declared Mrs. Joseph Hewes, of 102 E. Maine street, Willimansett, Mass., a highly respected resident of this place for the past 20 years.

"Before Tanlac fixed me up in such good health, I had scarcely any appetite at all, and even the little I did eat soured and fermented in my stomach, causing such a terrible pressure around my heart that I could hardly breathe. My kidneys bothered me a great deal, and my back pained me so dreadfully that it was all I could do to stand it. I also had awful pains in my knees, and at times they were so severe I couldn't walk or get up from a chair without something to hold on to. I never knew what it was to get a good night's sleep, and was simply miserable all the time.

"Well, since taking Tanlac it just seems almost like I am in a new world, for I never have an ache or pain and can get about as good as I could years ago. I have a splendid appetite, am entirely free from stomach trouble, and sleep like a child every night. In fact, I feel like an altogether different person, and simply can't praise Tanlac enough for my wonderful recovery."

Tanlac is sold in Lowell by Greens drug store, Merrimack square, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative and by the leading druggist in every town.—Adv.

Camp Devens, and Miss Bernice Lillian Staples, daughter of Mrs. Clara A. Staples, became the bride of Mr. Walter E. Burner, Rev. Edward Babcock, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Rev. Charles W. Clark, assistant pastor of the First Congregational church performed the ceremony. Both bridegrooms are veterans of the world war. Miss Dickey is the daughter and granddaughter of Civil war veterans and the sister of a Spanish war veteran. Miss Staples is also the granddaughter of a Civil war veteran. In keeping with the patriotic nature of the ceremony, the home was decorated tastefully with the national colors. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served and the couples left on extended wedding tour. They will be at home after Dec. 1.

FRIGHTFULNESS IN IRELAND

Mr. John Kennedy of 95 Middlesex street, has received a letter from a relative in Ennistymon in the County of Clare, Ireland, giving an account of the horrible work of the "Black and Tans" in that locality.

The writer says: "We are having a reign of terror in Ireland at the present time. The soldiers and Black and Tans are burning houses and doing all kinds of mischief. Recently in their outbreak at Ennistymon they committed horrible atrocities, burning and looting buildings and shooting down men suspected of being Sinn Féiners. They treated the men in the most cruel manner even after the victims had been fatally shot. The hands of some were twisted off, and the bodies of some were dashed with gasoline and thrown into the flames. It is the general opinion at the present time that the present reign of terror is fully as bad as anything that occurred in Cromwellian days."

THE FRIENDS OF IRISH FREEDOM

The following letter of appreciation to all who took part or otherwise helped to make a success of the demonstration in honor of the late Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, Ireland, held in this city on Oct. 31, was read at a meeting of the Friends of Irish Freedom in the Hibernian hall last evening:

"The committee in charge of the demonstration in memory of Lord Mayor MacSwiney, and his companions, Michael Fitzgerald and Joseph Murphy, who gave their lives for freedom, makes the following recommendations:

"We wish to thank all who in any way co-operated in making the demonstration equal to any held in our country. We wish to thank His Honor the mayor for his co-operation, also Right Rev. Monsignor O'Brien of St. Patrick's church and the pastors of each of the other churches, and they who headed the divisions from the various parishes. We wish to thank Superintendent of Police Redmond Welch and his cordon of men, also the O.M.I. Cadets and the Irish Volunteers for their escort and help. Gratitude for the use of his automobile. We wish to thank Rev. Dr. Keleher of St. Peter's church for his impressive recitation of the rosary and Rev. Francis L. Keenan of St. Patrick's church for his masterly eulogy.

And lastly we wish to thank the great public of Lowell, irrespective of race or creed, who took part in the demonstration, and the Lowell press for the assistance they rendered in its preparation.

"PATRICK J. MAHONEY,
Chief marshal, and committee for 'Friends of Irish Freedom.'"

Plans for the coming state convention of the Friends of Irish Freedom were also discussed last evening and final arrangements will be made at a meeting next Sunday evening. Patrick J. Mahoney, president of the local branch, presided at the meeting and among those who made remarks were Messrs. O'Sullivan, Sharkey, Balfry, Barrett and Healy.

DRY AGENTS RAID BOSTON HOTELS

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Choosing a time when the dining-rooms were filled with students, with the celebration spirit strong in them, prohibition officers Saturday night, under the direction of their chief, pulled simultaneous raids on several Back Bay and uptown hotels and when the raids were over three hotel managers and two waiters had been caught in the net and faced charges of violating the Volstead act.

Those arrested are: I. C. Prior, manager of the Lenox and Brunswick hotels; Ernest B. Spracklin, manager of the Capley Square hotel; J. J. De Lawrence, manager of the Hotel Crofton, in Eliot street; John J. Keilher, headwaiter at the Lenox, and Michael Regan at 34 Dalton street, back Bay, a waiter.

Searches were made in other hotels but no arrests were made.

The raids were planned to take place on Saturday night because it was figured that next to New Year's eve this would be the big night of the year.

The officers who participated were strangers in the Boston district, having been summoned to the city by Chief William J. McCarthy for special duty on this occasion. They came from Connecticut, which is also in McCarthy's district.

FEAR VIOLENCE

Minister-Prohibition Agent Removed to Another Jail

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 8.—Following rumors of intended violence, police officers early yesterday spirited away Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, Methodist minister and prohibition agent, who had been held in jail here since Saturday morning in connection with the shooting to death of Beverly Trumble, a inn-keeper, to the jail at Sandwich, it became known last night. Removal of the prisoner was effected quietly and did not become known until last evening. The action is said to have followed telephone messages to the jail here that an attempt at violence was contemplated by certain friends of the slain man.

Removal of Spracklin will not prevent resumption of the longest today. It was said, the minister having submitted his testimony Saturday night.

Trumble was killed in his hotel early Saturday while Rev. Mr. Spracklin was there. Other prohibition agents were four other men, Spracklin testified at the inquest that he shot in self-defense, asserting Trumble had pressed the muzzle of a revolver against his stomach. He also asserted his men had been assaulted by Trumble and guests in the hotel and that Trumble had threatened to kill him. Mrs. Trumble, wife of the slain man, testified her husband was not armed. Local officers say they have found no trace of a revolver Trumble is said to have had in his possession.

Whether charges will be preferred against Spracklin will not be decided until the inquest is concluded.

Members of Methodist churches in the border cities yesterday pledged funds for Spracklin's defense if he is brought to trial.

You Need More Than A Laxative

To correct constipation, all organs of digestion and elimination should be helped. Try NR and see how much better you feel.

NR Today—Keeps the Doctor Away

To live and be healthy, your body mechanism must properly digest your food, extract all the nourishment from it and promptly throw off the waste that is left. This is accomplished by the processes of digestion, assimilation and elimination—the work of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

The failure of any of the vital organs to do its work properly affects the action of all the others. A forced bowel movement does not help constipation; it only increases for a few hours the condition that constipation brings about.

Now if you are used to taking so-called laxative pills, oil, purges and the like, you know might well you're got to be taking them all the time. Moreover, if you stick to any one laxative, you've got to be increasing the dose all the time. That's why you do you a lot of harm.

Stop dosing yourself with such things just long enough to give Nature a Remedy (NR Tablets) a trial, and let the results show the difference. NR Tablets are not mere bowel movers, their purpose is to correct the condition that causes constipation and give you real, genuine, lasting benefit; to improve your digestion and assimilation, give you a good hearty appetite, regulate your liver and bowels, tone up kidney action and give you poison-clogged body a good cleaning out.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is not harsh; it is mild, easy, pleasant in action; no griping or pain ever follows its use; but it is thorough and sure. By its action on the digestive organs it promotes assimilation, which means extraction of full nourishment from your food, and thereby gives you more strength, energy, better blood, better appetite. By toning, normalizing your lazy liver, NR sends bile into the intestines, improving intestinal digestion. Lastly, by gently encouraging more vigorous bowel and kidney action, NR drives poisonous impurities out of and cleans up your body.

Try Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and just see how much better you feel in every way. Get a 25c box today and take one each night for a week. You'll say you never felt better in your life. NR is a solid, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.

WILD SCENES IN LONDONDERRY

Five Policemen Shot—Two May Die—Sinn Feiners' Shops Burned and Wrecked

Fierce Riot in Belfast—Two Killed in Dublin—Rifles Seized by Sinn Feiners

BELFAST, Nov. 8.—Wild scenes were witnessed in Londonderry Saturday night, as a sequel to a sudden attack on policemen there. Five policemen were shot, two of them so seriously that they are not expected to recover, two shops were burned to the ground, and several others were wrecked. All the property attacked belonged to Sinn Feiners.

The attack on the policemen was directed against the officers who were guarding the customs house, and a brisk exchange of shots followed. The riot occurred at 9 o'clock in the evening, in a busy neighborhood. So terrified were the crowds of shoppers that they fled homeward in a panic. Afterward the police and the military raided a large section of the city, holding up and searching every one they found outdoors and invading and searching numerous houses.

Later in the evening, a hostile crowd assembled in Waterloo square, a Sinn Féin thoroughfare, and was dispersed by the military. Even after this curfew hour, there was almost unceasing revolver and rifle fire for two hours or more, with occasional sounds like explosions of bombs.

A number of armed men passed along William street, smashing shop windows with the butt ends of rifles, destroying the lamps on the electric standards by rifle fire and plunging the whole street into darkness. Two premises were set on fire, one being a garage, which was destroyed. A number of domestic animals were burned to death and the motors in the garage reduced to scrap.

Many persons left their houses and spent the night in distant parts of the city.

Two policemen who had been wounded were found lying in Foyle street.

Fire Brigade Fired Upon

A fire brigade, called to fires in William street had a thrilling experience. Before starting, the firemen appealed to the military for aid, and a number of armed soldiers traveled on the engines. On their way rifle fire was opened upon them from both sides of the road. The soldiers returned the fire and two men were seen to fall.

To escape the fusillade, the engines took a circuitous route and called at the military barracks to get more soldiers before proceeding.

The official report of the disorders says that three constables in plain clothes received several gunshot wounds from the military escorting the fire brigade. Of two stores wrecked, one belonged to a member of the Londonderry corporation.

Pierce Riot in North Belfast

Pierce rioting, confined to a limited area, broke out in North Belfast yesterday afternoon, the neighborhood involved being the network of streets between Clifton street and Old Lodge road, known as the Stanhope area, which has figured in every disturbance since July. Hundreds joined in the fray, the unionists with stones and the Sinn Féiners with revolvers and rifles.

A large body of police made repeated charges to keep the rioters apart until the arrival of the military with an armored car, when the rioters were soon dispersed.

A laborer was shot dead in Cork by a military curfew patrol Saturday night. The soldiers allege that he thrice disregarded orders to halt.

Two Civilians Shot

DUBLIN, Nov. 8.—An attack by a mob on two policemen Saturday night, ended in the shooting of two civilians, one of them seriously. The fray caused a great panic, as crowds of people were just leaving the theatres.

The policemen, who fled from the mob, fired their revolvers at their pursuers. One policeman was captured and thrown in the Liffey, but was rescued by other police.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Several hundred rounds of ammunition and a number of rifles have been stolen, supposed by Sinn Féiners from the Orange hall, in the Cowcross district of Glasgow, according to the Daily Herald.

Italy Cannot Ignore Ireland

ROME, Nov. 8.—The declaration of the Irish Catholic bishops who, several weeks ago met at Maynooth and signed a resolution denouncing "terrorism, partiality and failure as characteristics of the present Irish government," has attracted considerable attention here.

The publicist in the Corriere Di Italia has elicited a letter from Donati Mauri, one of the leaders of the Catholic party, who declares that "Italy cannot remain indifferent to the desperate cry of martyred Ireland and adds: 'The time has come for Italy to know and realize the cruelties of the English troops serving as police and their systematic work of destruction.'"

Seven Irish Volunteers Killed in Fight

DUBLIN, Nov. 8.—Seven volunteers are reported to have been killed in a fight at the Causeway, near Tralee, Friday.

Seventy-four arrests were made in Cork during the curfew hours Saturday night.

IRISH FORESTERS

Meeting Held Yesterday to Organize Ladies' Branch of Irish National Foresters

At A.O.U. hall yesterday afternoon, a very enthusiastic meeting was held for the purpose of organizing a ladies' branch of the Irish National Foresters. Over 50 ladies were present in addition to the organizers and brother members of Branch O'Neill Crowley. A preliminary organization was formed with over 50 prospective members. General Organizer Handley called to order and delivered an interesting address setting forth the advantages of membership which he stated are financial, social and fraternal. The temporary officers chosen were: Miss Helen Howard, chief ranger; Miss Minnie Donahue, secretary; and a committee on by-laws consisting of Miss Helen Howard, Miss Mary Dillon, Mrs. Elizabeth Mahoney, Miss Maria Markham and Miss Minnie Donahue. It was decided to elect permanent officers at the next meeting which will be held in the same hall at 7-5 p. m. next Saturday. Addresses were made by Chief Ranger Patrick Linehan of the male branch, Dr. Thomas B. Delaney, Michael Mitchell, Thomas Nevins, Patrick Sheridan and Hugh McQuade.

ANOTHER ALDERMANIC ASPIRANT

Another name was added to the list of aspirants for the position of commissioner in the local city government of 1921 today when John J. McFadden of 19 Myrtle street took out nomination papers from the office of the election commissioners. David Dickson of 142 Smith street, chairman of the republican city committee, has taken nomination papers as a candidate for commissioner. Charles J. Morse, candidate for commissioner, and Frederick G. Hoibie, candidate for the school board, have both filed their papers.

LOCAL GREEKS INTERESTED

The topic of discussion among the members of the local Greek community at present is the coming election for a premier of Greece, which will take place Sunday, Nov. 11. There are two candidates for the position, E. Venizelos, the present incumbent, and D. Gounaris, who held the office during the reign of King Constantine, and the community, according to hearsay is about evenly divided.

LAWRENCE STREET BRIDGE

No vehicle of more than five-ton capacity will be allowed to cross the new Lawrence street bridge over the Concord river during the present week. Commissioner Denney A. Murphy, of the street department announced today. The vibration caused by heavy trucks interferes with the settling of the cement on the bridge. Trucks and other heavy vehicles may detour around Rogers, Boylston and Lawrence streets.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

October Was Very Busy Month, According to Chamber Service Letter

A month of much activity in all the departments is reflected in the service letter of the chamber of commerce for October, which has just been sent out to its members. The opening of the fall season in many of the departments of the chamber resulted in an acceleration of the machinery of the organization.

During the month the chamber enlarged its quarters, taking an additional office room adjoining the original quarters. This has enabled better facilities for the rapidly growing traffic department.

The service letter says about the resignation of Assistant Secretary John J. O'Rourke: "It is with much regret that we announce the resignation of Mr. John J. O'Rourke, assistant secretary. Mr. O'Rourke has accepted a position as secretary of the chamber of commerce of Norwich, Conn., and entered upon his new duties Nov. 1."

During October the board of directors held three meetings with a total attendance of 34. Twenty-one committee and other meetings were held during the month with a total attendance of 161.

The October membership meeting was held at Memorial hall Oct. 27 and the speakers were Dr. A. R. Hutton of Cleveland and J. R. French, field secret executive of the Boy Scouts of New England.

The new membership committee held two meetings during the month and reported nine applications for membership.

The streets and roads committee has made a recommendation to the board of directors relative to the future construction and maintenance of streets. This recommendation will probably be made the subject of a referendum to the membership, the service letter says.

The chamber's street railway committee made the following report of its October activities: "A special committee is now engaged in the study of the street railway problem not only with regard to a lower rate of fare, but also to ascertain if possible what improvement in operating conditions may be made to reduce the expense of operation. It is hoped that their study may result in a recommendation of an adjustment of the fares which will be advantageous not only to the patrons of the road but to the company as well."

The charities' committee held four meetings during the month to consider the advisability of uniting the various relief organizations of the city that are obliged to go to the public for funds for their support and to conduct a campaign to secure amounts sufficient for the needs of all. This committee has not yet made any recommendation.

The chamber's traffic department put in a busy month and in fact, more space in the October letter is devoted to this branch of the organization than any other one department. At the request of the traffic department the Boston & Maine railroad on October 7 established daily merchandise cars from Lowell to Chicago, bi-weekly cars to St. Paul, Minn., and weekly cars to Toledo, O., and St. Louis, Mo.

The traffic department has been of considerable assistance in locating and obtaining prompt movement into Lowell of many carload shipments which have been delayed in transit. One case of this nature required a personal trip of the traffic manager through the state of Connecticut and western Massachusetts.

Working with the Massachusetts department of public works, division of highways, arrangements have been made with local truck owners to cooperate with the state during the winter months in the removal of snow from the principal highways between Lowell and Boston and Lawrence, which it is hoped will enable the trucks to operate throughout the winter.

The traffic department has the facilities to render most valuable service and assistance to shippers and receivers in Lowell and all are requested to make use of these facilities.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

An impressive memorial service in honor of the late King Alexander of Greece was held in the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox church in Jefferson street yesterday morning. The church was filled to its capacity and the service, which started at 10:30 o'clock continued until the noon hour. It was expected that General Consul Leonidas Mathis of Boston would be present at the service; but he was unable to come because of a previous engagement with the Lynn Greek community, where he was the principal speaker at the memorial service held in the Greek church. The local service was presided over by Rev. Fr. Menicolas and Rev. Fr. Soultides, who offered prayers for the repose of the soul of the late ruler. At the close of the service Rev. Fr. Soultides delivered a brief address.

WHEN PURCHASING A HANGING DOME FOR YOUR HOME

The really important part to consider is exclusiveness. You do not want a dome like your neighbor's or friend's. You want something entirely different. With this end in view we have just placed in stock twenty domes, all different—for either gas or electricity. Prices range from

Administrator's Auction Sale of Real Estate

Thursday, November 11, 1920, at 3 O'Clock

A VERY DESIRABLE CORNER PIECE OF REAL ESTATE, A TWO-FAMILY HOUSE, NOS. 150 AND 161 WALKER ST., LOWELL, MASS.

To settle the estate of the late Peter F. Conaton, I shall sell at public auction to the person that will bid the most money with the terms of sale, the modern built two-family house and 4905 square feet of land, more or less, with a frontage of about 57 60-100 feet on Walker street and about 57 31-100 feet on Bertha street.

This two-family house was built for Farrell & Conaton and they were joint owners. To settle the estate of the late Peter F. Conaton and for the purpose of making a division of the property, both interests will be sold at public auction at the above mentioned date and place.

The house is two-story and has a gravel roof. Each tenement has half of the house, up and down stairs, so that they are entirely separate.

The tenements have seven rooms, pantry, bathroom, set tubs, hot and cold water, open plumbing, steam heat, radiators in every room, has electricity and gas, separate front and back stairs, front and side entrances, cemented cellar, and the house is in good repair inside and out. The tenements rent for $20 per month each, or $720 per year for both.

The house sits high on the lot, has piazza in front, covered bulkhead leading to the cellar. There are concrete walks about the place with stone steps and a granite-capped wall along the front of the lot. It is but two houses from the Broadway electric car line. Stores, schools and many workshops are nearby, and tenements in this section are never idle.

This property should appeal to any person wishing to invest in a modern, up-to-date, two-family house. A liberal mortgage may be had if so desired.

Terms of sale: $500 deposit in cash must be paid or secured to the auctioneer as soon as the property is sold. Other terms at sale.

Per Order, WILLIAM F. FARRELL, GEORGE M. HARRIGAN,
Administrator of the Estate of Peter F. Conaton.

Real Estate Auction Sale

Saturday, Nov. 13, 1920, at 3 O'Clock

ON THE LAWRENCE BOULEVARD, CORNER OF PERCY STREET, KENWOOD, BRACCT, MASS.

I shall sell at public auction to the person that will bid the highest and comply with the terms of sale, a 2 1/2 story house of eight rooms and 4900 sq. ft. of land, more or less, with a frontage of about 40 feet on the Lawrence boulevard and about 100 feet frontage on Percy street.

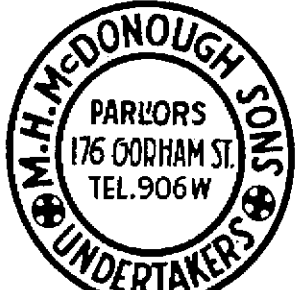

The first floor of the house is composed of large hall, parlor, sitting room, dining room with china closet built in, kitchen, pantry and bathroom, all with hard wood floors.

The second floor is composed of four cheerful sleeping rooms. There is also a large room on the top floor. There is an extra good well of water with force pump at the sink and a supply tank on the top floor. The house is fitted with electric lights. There is a high posted, well lighted, cemented cellar. Has a good sized plot of land for a garden. The place is situated within the first fare zone from Merrimack Square.

This property is in good repair and rents for $25.00 per month. Come and look it over.

Terms of sale: $300 deposit in cash must be paid or secured to the auctioneer as soon as the property is sold. Other terms at sale. A liberal mortgage can be had if one so desires.

Per Order, R. S. FOX.
